
BY FAITH, MOSES

Thank you, Brother Neville. Good morning, folks. It's good to be here today in the tabernacle. And I thought maybe if I got Brother Neville to speak this morning, I'd try tonight. And then I was looking back then to a Sunday school lesson for this morning. And what a . . . The Lord willing, we'll try to—to have this Sunday school lesson.

2 Now, it has been two weeks now, about, since I have gotten in. And been very nervous as you understood, that, on the field, I got real, real worn out and could hardly go any farther. And then I had to come in for just a little rest. And I taken about three days down to Wolf Creek Dam, down in Kentucky, where I was born. I thought, "Oh, I feel just wonderful now. I'm fine."

3 And I got back home, and the first little thing met me in the face was some sort of a governmental affair with an income tax. I went all the way to the bottom again. So I realized it's going to take more than just a week or two to rest me up.

4 And my ministry fixing to make the change now. And I have no meetings scheduled. And that's the reason that I just kind of come aside, and thought, and now for the next few weeks, I would just take a rest, complete rest, and wait on the Lord.

5 And many of you people in here, that's old-timers, that's been with us so long, remembers that what the Lord has said to us, He has always performed that what He said He would do.

6 Remember, when in the very beginning, in the church here, the morning that we laid the tabernacle stone, how that He . . . It's wrote, and laying in the stone, on the fly-leaf of my Bible. That morning, that great vision, said, "This is not your tabernacle."

7 I said, "Where is it, Lord?" He set me out under the skies. And a Voice came. And I looked and seen them three crosses, like, the trees and the fruit of them, so forth. You know what the vision is. It's been wrote out, for years.

8 Picking up, the other day, an old book up there, reading some of the things that the Lord had told, foretold; already come to pass. About this juvenile stuff, and about how the war would come out, and all those things has hit.

9 Just the two things left, in one of those great prophecies. That is, for cars to be on the road with remote control, looking like an egg, only you don't drive it. It controls itself. And then there will be a great woman rise up, 'cause America is a woman's nation. And it'll . . . A great woman will rise up, and be President or something like that, in the nation. And then there will come a total annihilation. The entire nation will be wiped out.

¹⁰ And, that, I predict . . . Now this is not the Lord saying this. (The other, about the woman, it is, is the Lord.) But I predicted, in 1933, that the world would meet total annihilation before '77.

¹³ And then I seen in the tabernacle, and I seen that they had . . . was going to have some re-elections and everything, in the church, for some of the board and so forth.

¹⁴ And—and the church needed a little meeting, a little stirring. And you've always been kind to me, and blessed me. And by me being here, seem had been a blessing to you. And I'm sure, to be with you, has been a blessing to me. And you've always accepted what I said to be the Truth, as I seen it through God. And I—I appreciate that.

¹⁵ So then, I started in, and then I was to find out, and get our church straightened up, in its boards, and then for the elections and so forth. And then—then, I thought, after that, I went out and got a little rest before I go back on the field again.

¹⁶ Keep it among yourselves. Now, it's not for outsiders. It's for this tabernacle. We want a meeting with this tabernacle, so that everything, and every mistake, all things that's been carrying on, and maybe little feelings from one to another; those, I'm going to get every one of them and bring them right face-to-face. So if you don't want to face it, you better leave the country; 'cause you're coming face-to-face with every bit of it, like we used to do here at the tabernacle. And all to be smoothed out, because we are brothers and sisters who has broke communion, the Body of Christ, across the table of blessings. And is nothing but the devil would make anything that would be wrong, and would cause feelings, or tear up, or anything like that. And I'm taking our Brother Neville, and we're going from place to place, and bring people to people, together, till the old tabernacle is back, established again, on its feet, to go along for the Kingdom of God. Now, this is, reason I've said this, is because it's with our own little group here this morning.

17 And now I'm going to get some rest, and get back just as quick as I can. Then I expect to leave to the field again. And this time, the Lord willing, I want to take what little we have accumulated in funds, and so forth, of myself, out in the, this foreign mission program, and get me a new tent, and some new equipment, and start on the field, not from church to church, but to going in our own meetings.

18 Now, not no disregarding to brethren who has invited me, which is wonderful. But most all of it, you find out these conventions, they say you're going to be there, and then all your friends come in, and then there's a whole lot of big drumming for money. Just drains those people down. I just begin to find that out, you see. So that's—that's not right. We want to have a place where we can bring them. You don't have to bring your money. Just come along, yourself, and—and serve the Lord. See? And so now . . .

19 And my ministry has taken a change right now. You remember when I used to take a hold of the person's hand, and just stand there, and the Lord would tell me what was their trouble. Said, "Then it would come to pass, you know the secret of the heart of the people." Every one of you know that's happened just perfectly the way It said. Now this is the next step, which has been prophesied and foretold, which is going to be far beyond any of It, you see. And it's right now in the change.

20 And that's the reason Satan's fight me with the income tax, trying to tell me, the government, that I owe income tax on every penny I taken up, as a minister, since out of twenty-seven years ago, entered the ministry. It's not so, 'cause it passed through the church here.

21 I am the trustee of this church. That's exactly right. It's on the records here. So, then, if I am the trustee-treasurer of this church, then there's nothing in the world. . . Government don't have nothing to do with it. They're not questioning the church. They're questioning me being the treasurer of the church. And the trustees has signed a paper that's in the bank yonder, that all my funds. . . Instead of having a foundation of my own, I passed it through my church here, 'cause it's automatically a foundation, anyhow.

22 And to do that, helps me to keep from running away from the church and leaving it, and going on out and being nothing here. After I promised the people that I would return to the church, time after time, and help them. That's the reason I kept it like that, because I made a promise to you people. That's why I stay with it that way, instead of having an individual. Then, if you do that, it throws it to an organization. And I'm firmly against organization. So I—I'll keep it just the way it is, in the hands of God, so that we can move on for the Kingdom of God.

²³ Now, this morning, we want to study this blessed old Word, and believe.

²⁵ And now they're going to have some more election of—of deacons, and so forth. And Brother Neville is, will be calling those immediately after this service, all right, and for the treasurer and so forth, as we set the church up. Get it, all backgrounds, ready, then we can have a revival as it comes on.

²⁶ Now, just before we turn back to the pages here, for our Sunday school lesson, to this great Word of the living God, let us just bow our heads, a few moments, as we speak to the Author of this Book. And now lay aside every thought, everything that's contrary, to keep you from having a blessing.

Let's pray.

²⁷ Most holy and righteous God, into Thy blessed august Presence we come now, offering to Thee our lives, and our—our souls, and our bodies, and our services, and our talents. And all that we have, we present them to Thee. And as You look upon us, Lord, if there is any sin naked and unconfessed, we would ask Thee, O Lord God, that You would apply the Blood of Thy Son, Jesus, to such a place. For, realizing that we in ourselves are insufficient, and there it is impossible for us to ever be self-sustaining. But we rely completely upon His precious Blood, and His grace to apply to our account, that we unworthy sinners might come boldly someday into Thy Presence, bringing before us this Blood of the Lord Jesus. Which, Thou, in the times past, has recognized it to be the Blood of Thy only begotten Son, and has made the promise, that, "Through Him, if we confess our sins, we shall be justified by His grace."

²⁸ And now we would ask, Lord, that You would forgive us of any mistake, any sin of trespass or omission, transgression, that if any evil thought has pierced our soul, by the fiery darts of the devil, that You would drive away this evil enemy of Thine, and of Thy people.

29 And we would ask that You will send the Holy Spirit to take hold of the Word at this time, as we yield ourselves as instruments, that You would speak through us, and hear through us, Thy Word. And may we in return receive It as from Thee, and leave this place, today, feeling that we have been re-adjusted to the cause of Christ; that we might be better fit for the service of tonight and tomorrow, because of the visitation of the Holy Spirit.

30 Bless our brethren everywhere, the churches across the world, who is holding forth the Word of Life in this evil day. We feel that there is not much time left to work, for the night is swiftly coming. The war clouds are floating again. Evil is at hand, and we pray that You will let us work as never before. Rest our tired bodies, Lord, and send us back into the battle. For we ask it in the Name of the Lord Jesus, and for His sake we pray. Amen.

31 As we open, this morning, the Bible, to the—the 11th chapter of the Book of Hebrews.

32 Wednesday night we were speaking on the 7th chapter of the Book of Hebrews, of “Melchisedec, being without father, and without mother, without beginning of days, or ending of life.”

33 And I thought, maybe, this morning, it would be appropriate to open again this wonderful Book, being that we have the backgrounds to what we wish to say, in the former readings. And skipping over the 10th chapter, and the 9th chapter, which is the sacrificial laws, we would come into a spot of “faith.” And here in the Book of Hebrews, the 11th chapter, and beginning with the 23rd verse, we read It like this:

By faith Moses, when he was born, was hid three months of his parents, because they saw he was a proper child; and they were not afraid of the king's commandment.

By faith Moses, when he came to years, refused to be called the son of Pharaoh's daughter;

Choosing rather to suffer the affliction with the people of God, than to enjoy the pleasures of sin for a season;

Esteeming the reproach of Christ greater riches than the treasures of Egypt: . . . and had recompence unto the reward.

By faith he forsook Egypt, not fearing the wrath of the king: for he endured, as seeing him who is invisibly.

34 I want to take the subject, this morning, “choosing by faith.” And I want to take for a text, the first three words of the 23rd chapter, By Faith, Moses. And, “choosing by faith,” most everything that we do, we have to choose by faith. And all that we find that Moses did, that's worth repeating, was by faith; not by sight, but by faith.

35 And the reason that I have selected this this morning, for the church in this state, has been that in our . . . even our schools, and around, we have had so much of scientific teaching. Because of this, we have drawn the people away from faith. Now, faith is not proved by science. Faith is what science doesn't see. And we . . . If we ever lose this great faith, then we are totally in darkness, it . . . no matter how well we are educated, how we could explain the Word of God, to suit our own way of believing.

36 There is no way to ever please God, only by faith. The Scripture plainly states it that way, and it's by faith. "And without faith," says the Scripture, "it is impossible to please God."

37 So, if faith disagrees with science, and science disagrees with faith, that puts them at—at edge at each other, then we must take a choice as Moses did. By faith we believe!

38 Now, if we lose faith, then we will never get a prayer answered by God. "For he that cometh to God must first believe that He is, and a rewarder of those that diligently seek after Him." So, if we lose faith, our prayers are annulled; we get nowhere.

39 So it's all that we can think of, this morning, is to hold onto faith. Then, if we lose faith, all our hopes is gone. And if we lose faith, all our spiritual reality is gone. For, you cannot have faith in things that you see, for the things that you see are all perishable.

40 If we look at some great person, a great minister, or a great congregation, they will all perish, someday. And if we look at a great nation, or a great weapon, they'll all perish, someday. And then we must live by faith, of those things that science does not declare. It's by faith that we believe.

41 Now, we lose our glory if we lose faith. Now, if we get away from faith, then we take the church into an intellectual realm.

42 And many times, it's been thought, amongst people, that because a congregation was large, and they had great churches, great steeples, and a great, lot of well-dressed and groomed people, and a lot of finances, that they could afford such things, we, many times, thought that was inspiring, that this certain church must be inspired. Or, we've often referred to different ministers who get out on the field and have great gatherings of crowds, and we think, sometimes, that they are the signs of inspiration. But that's not altogether the truth. That's human inspiration.

43 But the real inspiration comes by doing the will of God. See? Whether it is one, or just a handful. Whether it is a big church, or a small church, it matters not. Whether he is a great, eloquent speaker, or just a man that hardly knows his ABC's, it doesn't matter. It depends on the message that he's bringing, whether it is inspired by the Word of God, or, is it inspired by intellectual conceptions of human inspiration?

44 Some people can be inspired because of an eloquent speaker. That doesn't make it right. Sometimes they're inspired because the man is so trained that he could put his point over. That doesn't mean that it's of God. See?

45 It's only through God's everlasting, Eternal blessed Word, can we receive inspiration, and that's given by the Holy Ghost. By faith we receive it.

46 Now we would think of Moses, and this great time of his life. And we read back, of his birth, and how that God had cared for him, but there come a time in Moses' life to where there had to be a choosing time. If we read right, we find out that he was the son of Pharaoh's daughter, and was the heir to the throne, and would have been the next pharaoh in Egypt. So he would notice as he looked around, after he had become of age and of accountability, and there would be those slaves working out in the slime pits. And Moses, as he looked through the windows of the palace, upon the same slaves that Pharaoh looked on, but what a difference there was in the looking.

47 I want to base that thought, this morning, for a few minutes, and may the God of Heaven drive it home to every heart here, it's how you look at anything, what makes the difference.

48 The great evangelist, John Sproul, which was a convert of Brother Bosworth's ministry, who many of you remember years ago, of the Old Glory Barn. He said, one day he was taking a trip, before the deceasing of his beloved companion and wife. They were in La Salle, Lorraine, France. And I had the privilege of visiting the same place. And the guide was taking them out through the gardens, and showing them the different things. And they come upon a certain statue of the Lord Jesus, the crucifixion. And Mr. Sproul was standing off, looking at it, he and his wife, and, in their hearts, were criticizing what the artist must have had in mind, or the sculptor, rather, when he hewed out of a stone, such a horrible-looking thing to be to represent the suffering and the love and the pity of the Lord Jesus, and how it was all crudely and chopped-up looking. And the guide came to Mr. Sproul, and he said, "Sir, I suppose that you are criticizing this statue of the Lord Jesus."

And he said, "I am."

49 And he said, "I am not a bit surprised, because most people that look at it, first, they do criticize it."

50 And Mr. Sproul said, "Why, I can't see any pity or any inspiration from looking at such a thing, so I'm wondering why the sculptor every made it like this."

51 “And the sculptor . . .” Said, “Mr. Sproul, this statue is all right, and the sculptor had the right thing in his mind. But where the trouble is, is with you. It’s the way you’re looking at it.” And he took he and his wife by the hand, and led them down to an altar at the foot of this said cross. And he said, “Now, Mr. Sproul, look up now.” And when he looked up, he said his heart like to have failed him. What a difference it was, to stand off there and look at it that way, and to get down and look at it the way that it was made to look at.

52 And that’s the way that God is. That’s the way that faith is. It’s the way you look at it. If you look at it as some sort of a historical Bible, of something that was in the days gone by, you will never be able to get the real value of the Bible. You are supposed to get on your knees, and obey the commandments of this Bible, and look at It through the eyes of the Holy Spirit.

53 I would ask this audience this morning: What good does a historical God do us today if He isn’t the same God? What good does a God, that would take Moses and do the miracles with him that he did, what good would it do us to read of such a God if He isn’t the same One today? What good is a God that could deliver from the fiery furnace, the Hebrew children, if He isn’t the same God today? What good is a God that would judge between right and wrong, in a day gone by, and punish the wrong and bless the right, if He isn’t the same God today? What do we go to church for? Why do we abstain from things of the world, if He isn’t the same God of the same judgment, and the same opinion that He always was? What good would it be for a God who could touch a woman’s hand with a raging fever, and the fever stop, if He isn’t the same God today? What good would it be to serve a God who could call His friend from a grave, after being dead four days, if He isn’t the same God today?

54 By faith we believe that some glorious day He shall call us from the earth, though we be a spoonful of ashes again. How do we prove it? We do not prove it. We believe it. We’re not asked to prove anything. We’re asked to believe it.

55 By faith Moses did such-and-such. And as Moses, as a young man, looked through the palace window, at the slaves, he saw the same bunch of grimy, dirty, muck-ridden slaves that Pharaoh saw.

56 And when Pharaoh looked upon them, and the Egyptians, they wasn’t nothing but a bunch of slaves. That’s all they were good for; just to be human mud daubers, to make muddy bricks for the benefit of the cities that Pharaoh was building. That’s the way the Egyptians and Pharaoh looked at the slaves.

57 But Moses, when he looked at them, it was a different look Moses had. When he seen, passing by the window, the great ditches in their face, the tears that run down their cheeks, and their bent bodies, he looked upon them as the people of God. He didn't look upon them as slaves. He looked upon them as the chosen people of God.

58 And, oh, as I go about, from country to country, and from nation to nation, preaching! Since I left the doors of this little tabernacle, that's an interdenominational institution, with no law but love, no book but the Bible, and no creed but Christ, I've tried to look upon God's children, and upon the rejected, as being God's chosen and elected people. I don't ask them if they belong to the Branham Tabernacle. I don't ask them if they are Methodist, or if they are Presbyterians, or if they are Pentecostals, or Nazarenes, or Pilgrim Holiness, I just want to look upon them as the people of God. And seeing their doings and their actions, that they are the servants of the Lord God, and my heart desires fellowship with them, no matter what brand they got. I just long for their fellowship. I love them because I know they are people of God.

59 When I see a woman coming down the street, with a long skirt, and her hair done up neatly in the back, and—and a decent-looking dress on; and I see another young lady, maybe the same age, with a little pair of shorts on; she may be, in looks, twice as pretty as the woman with the long hair, according to the looking of the world, but I'll take my side with that girl that's dressed like a Christian. Though they would be laughing at her, and calling her a fanatic, yet, I'll take my side. She might not be as pretty as the other girl, featurely, but she sees something. By faith she sees Him Who is invisible, Who is guiding her life.

60 When I see the man on the job, being called "deacon," or "preacher," or "a fanatic," because he refuses to smoke, and to drink beer, and to go to dances, like the rest of them, and he's called "a fanatic," my heart goes out for him. He is my brother, down in this Egypt soils, that makes our heart long to embrace him and say, "Brother, we are pilgrims and strangers, of this land, and I long to fellowship with you."

Moses had to make a choice, choosing by faith.

61 How many young men would have jumped at the opportunity to become the son of Pharaoh's daughter! How many young men would have jumped at the opportunity that Moses had, to enjoy all the pleasures and the glamour of the world, to become the king of Egypt, to have the whole world at his feet! "What a foolish thing," that the young men of his day must have thought, “when Moses chose to take his place with the afflicted and suffering people of God.”

⁶² Why did he do it? By faith, when he lifted up his eyes, he looked beyond the glamour of this world. He looked beyond the pleasures of sin. And the Bible said that he endured as seeing Him Who was invisible, by faith, and he made a choice to serve that God regardless of what took place.

⁶³ It has not changed. Many of us could go to what we would call a better building. We could enjoy, maybe, the fellowship and pleasures of setting in a better pew. We might be more popular, to drink and to smoke, and to dress and to act like the world. But what’s the matter? You’ve lifted up your eyes, and by faith you see Him Who is invisible, and have took your stand with the rejected and so-called holy-rollers of the day. For by faith we see Him Who is invisible, choosing to suffer the persecutions and the afflictions.

⁶⁴ I wouldn’t say to people that they should choose to be afflicted. I don’t say that you should choose suffering. It would not be the human thing to do. But if suffering lays in the path of duty, then let’s take it as it comes. I don’t want you to do something for somebody to make fun of you. I wouldn’t want you to say different things, that, “I’m a . . . I belong to a church that doesn’t believe in so-and-so, in the world’s,” and the things like that, just to get people to make fun of you. You’re bringing that on yourself. I wouldn’t say for you to get out here and carry on and do something that was radical. I wouldn’t want you to do that, so that somebody would say that you are a fanatic. You bring that on yourself. But if it lays in the path of your duty towards God, let the world say what they want to say. You live on.

You make a choice. Every man and woman has to make this.

⁶⁵ What if Pharaoh could have saw what Moses saw? He saw the sufferings of the people. He knew what the price was to pay. But by faith he chose it, rather than to have the pleasures of sin.

⁶⁷ But, my sister, raise up your eyes and look beyond that, to Him that said, “It’s an abomination for a woman to put on a garment that pertains to a man.”

⁶⁸ If the men of the people in your community, if the women that you associate with, said, “Cut that long hair off. It would be cooler. It would be this, that, or the other.” Or, “It would become you better.” Don’t you listen to that!

69 You lift up your eyes, and by faith saw Him that said, “The woman’s hair is her glory, and she shall not cut it.”

70 If they say, “It would be popular. You will stand in better with your job, or with your boss, if you’d take a sociable drink. If you would smoke cigarettes like the rest of the women, you would stand in more sociably in your neighborhood.”

71 By faith raise your eyes and look to Him Who said, “Defile this body, and I will destroy it.” By faith we believe those things. It’s nothing that you seen. It’s something you believe. By faith, Moses did.

72 And in this faith walk, there comes a time there has to be a choice.

73 Lot made that sad mistake that we make. A lot of times we choose for our own good. We choose things that would be better.

74 Sometime if there’s a little squabble comes in the church, and someone would say, “Well, the deacon or the pastor is on this side.” Don’t look at that. Look at what’s righteous. Get that thing out and bring them both together. That’s godly.

75 There’s a choosing. And we choose for ourself. We choose something that’s for our own good.

76 But Moses chose the afflictions and the disgrace, that he might walk with the people of God. Think of it now. Listen to it. “Chose the afflictions of the people of God, and counted it a greater treasure, for he endured, seeing Him Who was invisibly.”

Now, Lot, one time, had to make a choice.

77 And it may be, this morning, that there’ll be men and women setting here, that’ll make your final choice. You are today what you are, because several years ago you chose to be what you are now. And what you choose now will determine what you’ll be five years from today. Five years from today you may be a missionary. Five years from today you may be a renown Christian.

78 Or, five years from today you may be in hell, because you made the wrong decision. Five years from today you may be cleaning spittoons in a barroom. Five years from today you may be a prostitute on the street.

79 Or, you may be a man or a woman that’s a—that’s a credit to any society, because of your choice for Christ. Five years from today you may be in Glory, gone in the Rapture, because you made your choice today.

80 But you got to choose. And don’t look at what you see. Choose what you see by faith. That’s the only thing that will count, is what you choose by faith.

81 Lot, as he had to make a choice. Abraham give Lot his choice.

82 And God gives you your choice. “Choose you this day who you shall serve.” In the garden of Eden there was a tree of—of knowledge, and a Tree of Life. Man was given the privilege to choose either one he desired. And so is it today. You’re given your privilege, as free moral agents, to choose whatever you want to choose.

83 My advice to you, is, don’t look at the modern things around you, and the popularity and the glamour that you could be. But choose, rather, by faith, Him that give the promise that some day He will come and will righten all wrongs, and will give you Eternal Life, and raise you up. No matter if you take the despised way with the Lord’s few, make that choice. If there is troubles in the hand, if there is troubles in the land, if there’s troubles in the church, if there’s troubles in the home, no matter where it is, make your choice, “By faith, I’ll serve God. I’ll humble my heart in His Presence. I’ll take the way with God’s children. I see them despised and rejected, and drove out and made fun of, but I’ll still take my post of duty. I’ll stay right by. And when they cry, I’ll cry with them. And when there is sorrow, I shall sorrow with them. The way they live, I’ll live.”

84 Like Naomi said . . . Or, Ruth said to Naomi, “Your ways be my ways. My ways be your ways. Where you live, I’ll live. Where you go, I’ll go. The God that you serve will be my God.” Take that choice, though it pulls the very skin off of your conscience, of thinking that you’re somebody. Skin yourself down and take your way with the Lord’s despised few, and stay loyal on the field of service and at the post of duty.

85 Lot looked around. He said, “I got a choice.” And he looked towards Sodom. He saw the good grassy fields were better than what Abraham saw, and where Abraham was. He saw the opportunities to graze his cattle, to have fatter and better cattle.

86 I hope I’m not hurting anyone’s feeling. But that’s been the stand of too many preachers, to compromise with the Gospel, thinking that they get more money out of it. A meal ticket! I’d rather live in the barren land, eat, drink from a branch, and eat soda crackers, than to compromise upon the conviction of my faith in the Word of the living God. I’ll take my way.

87 Some of them said, “Billy, what’s the matter with your meeting, as there’s too many Pentecostals at it.” A great denominational minister said that.

I said, “Will your denomination sponsor my meeting?”

88 Not long ago, in the Look magazine, I believe, there was an article. And the writer said there, talked about the Pentecostal people. He said, “The Pentecostal church is the fastest growing church in the world today.” Why? Is because men and women has raised up their eyes and looked far off.

⁸⁹ And the writer also complimented the Pentecostal people. Oh, of course, he said, “There was some of them that went radical, and so forth. But, the Methodist worship a creed. They worship God by a creed. The Baptist does the same, and the Presbyterians. But the Pentecostal worships by his Bible.”

⁹² And, today, people try to reconcile themselves by saying, “Are you . . . ?”

I’ll say, “Are you a Christian?”

⁹³ They say, “I’m an American.” That has no more to do with it than try to say to a crow he was a frog. It has nothing to do with it.

⁹⁴ She’s going to be destroyed, because God is just. And if America gets by with her sins, the just and sovereign, holy God will be duty bound to—to resurrect Sodom and Gomorrah and apologize to them for burning them up, because of their sin; if He let’s us get by with it.

96 Oh, my! Lot didn't see the destruction of his children in that place.

97 Many of you, today, holding around these old formal creeds and things, you don't see the juvenile delinquency and the destruction of your children. You don't see your daughter in a prostitute house. You don't see your son a drunkard, or at a card table somewhere.

98 "Because she's well-watered." And sin is not touched. He didn't see his wife, the head of all the societies, turned to a pillar of salt, when he was looking. He didn't see him escaping only by the edge of his teeth, to a little city somewhere, for his life. He didn't see that, because he only looked at what he saw in front of him.

99 But, Abraham, he didn't notice the well-watered land, for he lifted up his eyes and saw the tomorrow, for he would inherit all things. The real Christian today lifts up his eyes and sees the promise of Christ: "Blessed are the meek for they shall inherit all things. They shall inherit the earth." The real Christian, by faith, looks up and sees that. Call him what you want to. He lifted up his eyes. And when he did that, God said, "Abraham, walk through the land, she's all yours." By faith, Abraham did this; the same faith that Moses had.

100 It was wrote by one commentator, that said this. I thought it was the most beautiful words. That Abra- . . . "Moses took the best of the world and put it in one scale; and the worst of religion, and put it in the other scale; and the worst of religion out-weighed the best of the world."

101 So is it today, that if we be called anything we want to be called, "fanatics," or "Divine healers," or "holy-roller," or whatever they want to call. The worst that we are will out-weigh the best the world can afford. Don't want to be called "old-fashion, old foggy, fanatic." It'll out-weigh the best thing that the devil has got to offer you. It most surely will.

102 Moses esteemed the reproach of Christ. He foresaw Christ. Later he spoke some mighty inspiring words about Him. "See, the Lord your God shall rise up a prophet like unto me." He knew. He foresaw Him, and he esteemed His reproach greater riches than all the glamour of the world.

103 Christian friend, today, can't you do that? And all the glamour and popularity of the world, by faith, we see Him who promised. And the worst of the church today, in all of its condition, yet It'll out-weigh everything the devil can offer you. If we are tore up, if we are broke to pieces, if we are confused and broke up, in denominations and fanaticism, it'll out-weigh anything the devil can offer you. Certainly.

104 He esteemed the reproach of Christ greater riches than all the treasures of Egypt. Then he had to do something. He forsook Egypt.

Oh, I love that word. He forsook Egypt. See, he was looking through the same window, but he was looking different from Pharaoh. What if Pharaoh could have seen his end? What if Pharaoh would have seen his nation drowned? Moses saw it. How? By science? By faith, Moses saw it. Everything that he did was by faith, because God promised Abraham, his father, that He would—He would visit this nation after four hundred years, and would bring them out. And by faith, Moses believed the Word that God said, and knewed himself, as by faith, to be the chosen leader to bring them out. He knew where he was. He took his place in the slime pits, as a mud dauber, and counted the reproach of Christ greater riches than to sit on the throne of Egypt. He took. . . He never did said, “I sympathize with it.” He took their place and went with them! Glory to. . . He took their place. We went with them.

¹⁰⁵ No wonder the inspired writer said:

I'll take the way with the Lord's despised few,
I've started in with Jesus, now I'm going through.
I'm on my way to Canaan's land. (Sure.)

¹⁰⁶ Moses. It was said by one that Moses had rather, when he could have been the son of Pharaoh and had the glamour of the world, he would rather be a son of Abraham than to be the son of Pharaoh. A son of Abraham, the despised, than to be son of Pharaoh, the king.

¹⁰⁷ I'd rather be the son of the Lord Jesus, and His fellow servant, and take my place with the rejected people of this world, than to be President of this great United States of America, or to be an Elvis Presley, or a Pat Boone, or whoever you want to make it. I'll take my way.

¹⁰⁹ I'd rather be a preacher in the pulpit, preaching the unsearchable riches of Christ, than to be a Hollywood movie star, or the greatest person on the earth. If I had to eat meager, beg, or whatever I had to do, I'll take my way with the Lord's people. By faith, I do that. I've been offered opportunities. But, by God's grace, I still see by faith.

By faith I can see it afar;
And our Father waits over the way,
To prepare us a dwelling place There.

¹¹⁰ An income tax man said, the other day, “Why did you turn your home to that church? What made you give a twenty-five-thousand-dollar home to that little old rubbish-looking tabernacle?”

111 I said, “It wasn’t the church that I did it. It’s the people that’s there.” I have not none of this world’s goods. Every penny of money I ever took is turned to this church. Why? My faith is on God, and not on the things of this world. My affections are above. And I believe you all’s are the same, if you’re right with God. It’s true, that you are. We, by faith, receive. We, by faith, believe God.

112 Moses, he had to make a choice. And then he had to, after making a choice, he had to fight the faith, then, for he feared not the wrath of the king. Now, humanly, he had a right to fear the wrath. He had a right to fear the wrath of the king, but he didn’t. He did not do it, because he had a job to do, and he was in the line of duty. And he didn’t care what the king said about it. He took His way just the same.

113 Now, Pharaoh, of course, when he sees he’s defeated, he wanted to give Moses and the children . . . He said, “All right, I’ll tell you what I’ll do. You all just stay in the land and go out and sacrifice to your God.”

114 That’s the way the devil works. “Oh, you can be religious. Why don’t you go over and join some church? You don’t have to do all these things.” A man says to his wife . . .

115 The wife says, “Husband, I got saved. No more manicure, or lipstick and stuff. No more of this. No more parties. No more of these society things. I’m out of it! I’ll put my time to reading the Word, taking care of home.”

116 “Now, look, dear. You, you can be religious, all right. Now, look, you—you go over here. You got the wrong church.”

117 No, you ain’t. You’re in the right one. If you got a preacher that will preach that to you, you ought to stay with it. Search back through the Scriptures and find if that’s right.

118 “Oh,” said, “go over here. They don’t—they don’t have to do that over here. See? They don’t do this over here.” That’s the way . . . “Just go so far.” But he don’t want you to get out of the land. That’s the way the devil does. He don’t want you to get out of the things of the world; just bring the world in with the church.

119 The other day, coming down the road, I turned on my radio. And there was a—a song, and I kept listening, and I had to take, nearly, the song through, before I could tell whether it was absolutely a religious song, or the devil is trying to bring down the things of God to the level of the world. You can’t do that! God be merciful!

120 I don’t care how many albums Elvis Presley writes, of all the good religious songs. He’s still possessed of the devil. He sent more children to hell, and all the moves I know of, in all the world in this day. Pat Boone and the rest of them, he belonged to the church of Christ; and Elvis Presley, a Pentecostals; they're Judas Iscariot, in the form of those men. The devil is trying to bring the high things of God, so that they can mix them down here. The people won't look up above this. They just look here, say, "Well, it's all the same." It isn't same. Get out of the land.

¹²¹ Said, "You can just go a few days. And you go, stay in the land." Sure, he knowed they'd be back. Then he found out that wouldn't work, so he thought something different. He said, "I'll tell you what you do. You go on out anywhere you want to go, but you leave all your wives, all your children, and all your cattle, back here. You leave them here, and you go out." Cause, he knowed they had possession back there, that would lure them back.

¹²³ I hear so much about backsliding. I don't believe there's so much backsliding as people think there are. They just leave too many possessions in Egypt to lure them back, that's all. Backslidings are not what they say it is. You left too much of the world back there, that lures you.

¹²⁴ Brother, I tell you, when Israel got ready, at midnight, they had everything they had in this world, packed up and ready to go.

¹²⁶ And you know what? I tell you, they was so true to God, till Pharaoh got so excited at midnight, he said, "Get out! Get out, and get going. Take everything you got, and go!"

¹²⁷ I'm so glad that a man can live so close to God, till the devil don't know what to do with him. That's right. Get out! Get going! Obey God!

¹²⁸ By faith, he saw the promise. Mud dauber, or no mud dauber, he taken his way with the Lord's despised few. Pharaoh said, "Take all you got and get out of here! I don't know what to do with you." He was so true to God, by faith.

¹²⁹ Faith will work miracles, if you'll stay true to God. By faith, we see Him.

Our time is up; past time.

130 But, by faith, this morning, lift up your eyes. Don't see what's around you, this modern world, but look and see Him Who give the promise. The Bible said, "We don't see all things perfectly now, but we do see Jesus." You look at Him, this morning, and your ways will be changed.

131 While we bow our heads, just a moment, for a word of prayer. May the Lord add His blessings to the Message.

132 Think in your heart now. Have you been looking on the things of the world? By faith, do you see Jesus? Are you looking at your popularity, your church? What your social standing is with the world? Or, do you see Jesus Who, in pity, placed Himself at the right hand of the Majesty on High, Who suffered as a martyr, the just for the unjust? Can't you raise up your eyes and see that Tree of Life yonder? Then, leave this tree of science and knowledge, and serve Him.

133 Would you like to be remembered in prayer before I pray? Raise your hands, for any request that you might have need of. God bless you. He sees all your hand.

134 If you're a sinner, raise up your eyes and look now. If you've been indifferent, if you've had little squabbles and little things, what difference does it make? You're going to die one of these days. What day? Maybe today! You don't know. An hour from now, you may be in hell, or you may be in Heaven. But you've got to choose now. If there's anything in your life that isn't right, you choose now, by faith.

135 You say, "Well, if I can just get even with her! If I can get even with him!" No matter what they done, choose Life. Choose Life.

136 For, Jesus said, "If from your heart you don't forgive every person their transgression, neither does your Heavenly Father forgive you." So just get that close. If there's one ought in your heart against any person, sinner or a saint, you're in danger of hell fire.

137 Now lift up your eyes. What do you see, your enemy? Or, do you see your Saviour? What are you looking at this morning?

138 If you're sick, and your doctor says that you can't get well, lift up your eye, to the cross, where He was wounded for our transgressions, with His stripes we were healed. Don't look at what the doctor says; he's working in science. Faith works in the realm of Spirit and God. Let us think of these things now while you've raised your hands. God seen them.

Let us pray.

139 O Eternal God, in the quietness of this worship now, after the Message has gone forth, do not let those seeds of Thy Word, Lord, fall upon stony ground. Do not let the Message, Lord, fall in briers, thorns, that the cares of this life (like Lot) might choke it out, at the end, become a castaway. But, O blessed God, let it fall on good, fertile grounds, on penitent hearts. And on mine, also, Lord, that we all might look through God's glass of looking, and see the rejected Church of the Lord Jesus, the rejected people, the rejected way, and may we walk in this glorious way.

¹⁴⁰ As Moses, he didn't know where he was going. The people didn't know where they were going. They didn't know which a way to go. They just started.

¹⁴² Moses followed the Light, and It led him to the land of promise. Not knowing where he was going, but he just walked in the Light, to that land that was fairer than day.

¹⁴³ Grant, Lord, today, that many here will walk in the Light of the Scripture and in the fellowship of the Holy Ghost, and with the Church; the Church, the First-born, the newborn babes that's received Christ, and been filled with the Holy Ghost, led by the Spirit. May we walk in this fellowship, together, around the articles of God, serving Him in baptism, in obedience to His death, burial, and resurrection. May we serve Him in His command, "Tarry ye at Jerusalem until you're endued with Power from on High." May we serve Him in Divine healing, praying for the sick. May we serve Him in communion, breaking of bread, with singleness of heart, fellowship around the Word of God. May we serve Him in all of His Divine articles, until the Land comes in sight. Grant it, Lord. Hear our prayer, as we commit it all to Thee now, in the Name of the Lord Jesus.

¹⁴⁴ Now with our heads bowed, quietly, slowly, let's just sing this song. Now this is worship. The message is over. No one leave. Just be quiet. Let's worship.

¹⁴⁵ The message is the correcting. Think over now what you've done, what you should have done, what made you what you are today. What makes you condemned, today, is because you did something yesterday. What will it be tomorrow? Make it right today, and you'll be free tomorrow. See? You must make a choice. How can you do it? "By faith, I now let loose of everything. I now let loose, and some day I'm going over There."

In the sweet by and by,
We shall meet on that beautiful . . .

Just worship the Lord in your spirit now.

In the sweet by and by,
We shall meet . . .

That despised Church, hard going, but we'll meet some day.

To our bountiful Father Above,
We will offer our tribute of praise,
For the glorious gift of His love,
And the blessings that hallow our . . .

With the Lord's despised few, by faith, I choose.

In the sweet (in the sweet) by . . . (by and by)
We shall meet on that beautiful Shore; (by and by)
In the sweet (in the sweet) by and by,
We shall meet on that beautiful Shore.

There's a Land that is . . .

Just worship Him. This is the worship.

. . . faith I can see . . .

By faith I make my choice.

Oh, the Father waits . . .

¹⁴⁶ I see all the Lord's over There, Brother George, Brother Seward, all of the saints.

. . . us a dwelling place There. (Yes, Lord!)
. . . the sweet . . .

¹⁴⁷ Her dad, Howard, Edward, all the old sainted friends who took the Way, back yonder, a long time ago.

In the sweet (Yes, Lord!) by and by (by and by),
We shall meet on that beautiful shore.
We shall sing on that beautiful . . . (O God!)
The melodious songs of the blest, (Glory to God!)
. . . shall sorrow no more,
Not a sigh for the blessings of rest. (Restful Place!)
In the sweet, sweet by and . . . (by and by)
We shall meet on that beautiful . . .

BY FAITH, MOSES
