
BELIEVE FROM THE HEART

[Brother Branham is reading James 5:12 as the tape begins—Ed.]

. . . neither by any other oath; but let your yea be yea; and your nay be nay; lest you fall into condemnation.

Is any among you afflicted? let him pray. Is any merry? let him sing psalms.

Is any sick among you? let him call for the elders of the church; and let them pray over him, anointing him with oil in the name of the Lord:

And the prayer of faith shall save the sick, and the Lord shall raise him up; and if he has committed sins, they shall be forgiven him.

Confess your faults one to another, and pray ye one for the other, that you may be healed. For the effectual fervent prayer of a righteous man availeth much.

Elijah was a man subject to like passions as we are, and he prayed earnestly that it might not rain: and it rained not on the earth for the space of three years and six months.

And he prayed again, and the heavens gave rain, and the earth brought forth her fruit.

Brethren, if any of you do err from the truth, and one converteth him;

Let him know, that he which converteth the sinner from his error of his way shall save a soul from death, and shall hide a multitude of sin.

² In the last chapter of the Book of Mark, the 16th chapter, and the last verse of the 16th chapter of Saint Mark, we read these Words:

After, he appeared unto the eleven as they sat at meat, and upbraided them with their unbelief and hardness of heart, because they believed not . . . him which had risen from the dead.

And he said unto them, Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature.

He that believeth and is baptized shall be saved; but he that believeth not shall be damned.

And these signs shall follow them that believe; In my name they shall cast out devils; they shall speak with new tongues;

They shall take up serpents; and if they drink any deadly thing, it shall not hurt them; they shall lay hands on the sick, and they shall recover.

3 “The prayer of faith shall save the sick.” Now, as we bow our heads in prayer, let us all, together, in our way, and every man in his way, let’s pray the prayer of faith for these sick people this morning. Then I want to lay hands on them, with the elders. Then we’ve done exactly what God’s Word said. Cause, there is where I’m going right to, in my Message.

Now let us pray.

4 Our Heavenly Father, as we bring to You this song, the melody of Only Believe, it is expressing to Thee our feeling towards Thy Word. And as the sick has been anointed according to Thy Word, and now we are going to pray this prayer of faith, the best of our knowledge, to obey Your commandments. And we realize, even in our weakness, Thou art more than able to overcome our weakness with Your Power and goodness. And then we’re going to bring the elders down, to lay hands on the sick, fulfilling every commission that we know that’s been given by our Lord.

5 And we pray, Lord, that we have found grace in Your sight, after all these years, still we’re trying to obey Your commandment. And now I pray, with this little group this morning, such as You have sent us, for they are needy, these people that’s here to be prayed for. And we’re offering this prayer for each of them. You know their hearts and You know their desires.

6 And I pray this prayer of faith, along with this church, that You’ll make manifest to them every desire that they have. May it become a reality just now. And may, as they leave this church, today, may they go like Abraham of old, calling those symptoms as though they were not there, and denying anything that would be contrary to the blessing that we’ve asked. Thou hast promised in Thy Word that it would come to pass, and we believe it.

7 Now, with these men that You have chosen and called to be ministers and elders, we are going to lay hands upon them just as we were . . . as though we were baptizing them. And they been anointed. The prayer of faith is offered, and hands are being laid on them. We pray that their faith now will look to Thee, O Almighty God, and be made well. In Jesus’ Name we pray.

8 Now, I ask the elders, come right down here along the line, as we lay hands on them. And as each one places your hand on the . . . [Blank spot on tape—Ed.]

⁹ . . .you will give me your undivided attention, just for a few moments, if you please. I try not to take too much time, as I lay my watch here, to be sure.

¹⁰ And, Brother Beeler, I think you're on the recorder, at the other end. And Leo and Gene isn't here. So I want you to, if you will, to recording of this testimony that I shall give in a few minutes, to be sent to Brother Boze, he pick this up.

¹¹ I wish to read, this morning, from the—the Book of Saint Mark, the 12th chapter. We want to take a portion of this and read It, and because It is God's holy, unadulterated Word. And we believe that God is in His Word. Do you believe that? And we are praying that God will add His blessings to It, as we read It, and I'm sure that He will.

¹² And then I want to take another portion of His Word, out of Acts, the 1st chapter. And we shall read from then. And I'm asking the Lord if He will add His blessings to the—to the reading of His Word.

¹³ I was just looking here. I had a mark here in my—in my Bible, that I wanted to read from, first, but I don't think I can find it just at the time. Just excuse me for a moment, till I can find it, if I can. I thought I had it.

. . . Jesus said unto them, Have faith in God.

For verily I say unto you, If ye shall say to this mountain, Be moved . . . ; and do not doubt in your heart, but . . . believe that those things you say will come to pass; you shall have what you say.

¹⁴ Now, over in Acts, the—the 1st chapter and the 8th verse.

But ye shall receive power, after that the Holy Ghost is come upon you: and ye shall be witnesses unto me both in Jerusalem, and in . . . Judaea, and in Samaria, and to the utmost parts of the earth.

¹⁶ After twenty-five years of ministry for the Lord, in His work and in His Word; and after this being, coming in my twelfth year of international evangelism; and by the grace of God, to meeting tens of thousands of—of people; and seeing our Lord in our own campaigns, win, now as I have seen, to Him, oh, right in towards two million people, or a million five hundred thousand, somewhere along in there, in the meetings. I've come to this conclusion, and of all of our efforts, and so forth. It's impossible for God to do anything for the people until the people first get settled on whether it's Truth or not. You just can't. No matter . . .

17 I have seen great masterpieces of our Lord, in the—the Word, who could explain the Word better than anyone I ever seen, and yet could not make the program go over.

18 And I have on my mind, this morning, a certain man that I think has one of the best radio programs on the air. But there's, somehow, the man can't put his program over. That's Dr. Wyatt, a real teacher. But there's something wrong; I don't know where it's at. He's got the vision, he's got the idea, he's got the ability, but he just simply can't get the program to moving, somehow. The program that he's got is strictly on the Word, and it should bring the world to their knees.

19 And I seen here, not long ago, in Louisville, when I seen Dr. Mordecai Ham and many great theologians that I know, which is far better preacher than the young thirty-eight- or forty-year-old, redheaded evangelist walked out to the platform, passed those men, and they took a back seat. And stood there that night, wasn't one tenth or one-hundredth the preacher that the men was sitting behind him, though he had the program of God and put it over: Billy Graham.

20 I've noticed those things. And in noticing them, then I come to this conclusion. No matter what you are, God has got to furnish the audience. And no matter if I could stand here this morning and bring the dead to life, and to bring the cripples to their normal condition, and, yet, God is not in the program, it would go nowhere. God has to be in the program.

21 And any man, is known, his character is known by his works. No matter who he is, his works prove his character. If you take a man, no matter how good he tries to be, if his works are evil, all his goodness won't amount to nothing. And a man's word is his characteristic. A man that his word is no good, then you'll never have confidence in that man, because his word is no good.

22 So, therefore, God, our Father, His character and His works prove what He is. Now, we know that this world come here by some great Creator. It could not have just happened to be.

23 Now, I want this just few moments to be just as simple as possible. But I want you to get it in, praying that the Holy Spirit will move it right into the light that it belongs in.

24 Now, if you would just look and see the trees growing; and the limbs and the leaves, how they come and go, and the flowers; the spring, the fall, the winter, the summer. Something has got to be behind that. There could not be a tree unless there could be an intelligence to make it a tree. No matter what kind of a life would be in it, there has to be, behind that, an intelligence to make it what it is.

25 Now think that, straight now. Don't let it go over. Think of it, deep. For, if you notice our Scripture lesson, Jesus said, "If you will say in your heart!"

26 Not in your intellects; it'll never work there. No matter how much you try to make it work, it won't work, 'cause it's intellectual and has an end.

27 But when anything is Eternal, it has no end, and it had no beginning. Anything with an end, beginning, has an end. But it's just those things which has no beginning. And only God has no beginning or no end. And, then, to have these things that has a beginning, there had to be something without a beginning, to start the beginning.

28 The first tree that was ever made, that, like the one that Jesus cursed here, said, "No fruit grow on thee from henceforth, no man eateth from thee," there had to be, somewhere, that tree had to have a beginning. And it had a ending, when the Words that, from the lips of the One Who gave it the beginning, took it to the end. So, you see how Eternal His Words are.

29 But we have just accepted the Word on the intellectual basis. And seen so many total failures, till it has brought people to a place that they just hardly know what to believe. They're just, got a lot of loose ends to their—their religion. They run out on limbs this way, and limbs that way, which comes to the end, and here they come crawling back. Great movements starts and they run out like the Methodists, the Baptists, and the Pentecostals, and all this. And, the first thing you know, they get a little psychic idea, and they run out to the limb and they're having a big time. But, the first thing you know, they find themselves at the end.

30 But the only things that ever lasts, is the Eternal things, and the Eternal things are God.

31 Now, if you notice, a man known by his . . . his character is known by his works. If we would think of how God shows His character by His works. He's got His Own character, and He made His works. And if you look at His works, how great they are!

32 Now let me challenge every scientist in the world to build me one tree. Let me challenge every scientist in the world to make me one little, simple sprig of grass. And it's totally impossible.

33 Well, it seems like, then, upon thinking those things, that there could be a placing, by reading the Word, a faith that would go beyond the intellectual conceptions, into the heart. Jesus said, "If thou shall say in thy heart!"

34 Now, we get all flusterated in our minds, and we go out and say, "Oh, I seen that done. Yes. I'm . . ." And once in a while, it just hop, skip, and a so-forth, but it seems like it just can't get moving right. Is because we try to mix the intellectual with the supernatural. They have no dealings with each other, at all. Intellectuals will say one thing, and supernatural will say another.

35 And any man that's ever led by the Spirit of God does not take any thought of any intellectual, but he is led from his heart by the Spirit of God. He is misunderstood. People say, "Oh, how could it be?"

36 Right now I'm getting letters and phone calls, "You mean, Brother Branham, that you wouldn't be going overseas? After all this great . . ."

37 But, it looks wonderful, but Something way down inside, said, "Be careful."

38 And, therefore, we don't look at what we see. We look at those things we do not see, but, what God says in the heart. And if we could pay attention to those things, how much more by Divine healing. If God made the promise, and it anchors in the heart, well, what good do we need intellectuals anymore? I don't look at my affliction. I don't look at my symptoms. I look at what God said about it. Because, after all, He is the Boss, and the supreme Boss. If the doctor said so-and-so . . .

39 Now, if you try to bluff that, it won't work. If you try to reason it in your mind, say, "Yes, God's Word is right. I believe That. I believe it will come to pass. I think that." Now, if that's intellectually, you just might as well stop thinking it.

40 Until Something comes down on the inside of you, that just says it's so, and that's all there is to it. There is not enough demons out of torment could ever shake it from you. It's Something on the inside, called the "heart." There is where real faith finds its resting place.

41 Intellectuals will try to reason about it. "Now let's just be reasonable." But faith has no reasonings. It just has one thing, and, that's, God's Word is right. Oh, there is where the soul sets its feet, and rests Eternally right there, for God said so. Not a bluff, but knowing it.

42 And the earth, being God's work, it absolutely speaks and testifies of His Being. There has to be a God, or there would be no earth. There has to be a Creator, or there would be no creation. And if this Word, that He created the earth by, gives the promise, it has to create exactly what this earth created, by His Word, in the beginning.

43 When God said, "Let there be," and it might have took ten billion years. I don't know how long it taken. But how long it taken, that meant nothing, because God is Eternal. And He said, "Let there be," and it begin to develop, for God took His Own Word and believed.

44 And if His Word of His creation, His work here, proves that He is a Creator, then why can't we take His Word at what It says and believe It? Because, It's the same Creator's Word. Now, His works bear witness.

45 And, now, before God, the infallible One, could speak anything, it has to be perfect. Because, it can only—it can only . . . If it comes from God, it's coming from a perfect channel.

46 Now notice this. All peoples, everything, men are knowed by their works.

47 When the great Municipal Bridge was built in Sydney, Australia, when they sent around the world to get bridge builders, architects, and from . . . wanted to cross the peninsula at—at Sydney, Australia, to span over to South Sydney, the architects and all came, and dug up the soil and tested it. And all of them come to this conclusion, "It cannot be done." Said, "The whole bay is full of quick sand. And the soil will not hold together enough. It'll shift from place to place. Therefore, if the bridge would be built, it would be a dangerous thing to try to pass over it."

48 And finally there was a man who was a man of vision, a bridge builder in England. He came over. And he looked at the sand. He—he surveyed it. He tested the soils. He sounded the water. He had looked it all over, first.

49 Oh, I love that. He looked it all over, first. Jesus said, "A man buying a ground, or going to meet an army, first he sits down and he counts the cost." Every one of you here at the altar this morning, would sit there in your seats before you come to be anointed, and would count what it means, it wouldn't be just going through a prayer line, haphazardly, it would be going there with a firm confidence, that, God had promised it and God was able to keep His Word.

50 So, this man tested the soils. He tested the . . . each bed in there that had the quicksand. And, finally, he went to the officials. He said, "I will build the bridge, and it will be safe."

51 The bridge builders of America and different parts of the world only laughed and said, "The man is mentally ill. No man can put a bridge across that." Said, "Even if a chicken should walk the bridge that would be built, it would sink. The bridge could not stand it. The vibrations of even the dog running across the bridge, which will vibrate the bridge," said, "would shake the sands, and the bridge would go down. It cannot be done."

52 But this man was a man of vision, and he knew what he was talking about, for something down in him told him he could do it.

God, give us men in the church, like that!

53 Now, from all of the scientific research, that, it could not be done, science proved that it could not be done. But this man had a vision he could do it, so he took the contract.

54 Quickly he went to work. He went to testing the soils. He went to testing, and sounded the depths of the quicksand bed. He tested every bolt. He tested every piece of—of wood, every piece of metal, every concrete. Everything had to be perfectly tested. Because, his—his great name, and his character and his ability, rested on whether that bridge stood or not.

55 And if a man of this earth, by a vision, would be sure that everything was tested perfectly before he put it in a bridge, because of his character and because of his name, how much more did our blessed Heavenly Father test every Word that was ever said or wrote in the Bible. He tested every Word, every prophet. “And every son that cometh to God must be tested.” The material that goes in this great Highway, every rock, every material, before it’s placed into the—the Body of Christ, has to be tried, chastened. “Every son that cometh to God must first be tried.” No exceptions; every one! Every prophet, before he could write in that Bible, he was tested by the Holy Spirit.

56 Just as he, the bridge builder, I’m sorry, I forget his name, I knew it, couple days ago I was reading the article, how that he had everything tested. He got the best mechanics he could find. He got the best concrete man. He got the best that he could find, to put together the best that he had.

57 Oh, my soul would cry “hallelujah” to God, when I think that God puts in His Church the best that He can find. God takes His children and tests them with an acid test, then He places them into the Body of Christ because they are tested. They believe. They’ve went through the trials. They’ve had the experience. They are witnesses of His. They know what they’re talking about. Not just an intellectual conception, but they’ve been born again, of the precious Holy Spirit, and time-tested and tried, until their souls are set like flint towards Calvary. Yes, they are time-tested. They are witnesses of His Power. And through that, God is building a bridge from earth to Glory, that the wayfaring man may come on the highway, sit down under the tree, in the cool of the day, by time-tested material, those who take God at His Word. No matter what the symptoms are, the circumstances, that doesn’t stand in the way. God has got time-tested material as a witness, and He places it.

58 And this great bridge builder, when finally . . . The architects stood along on the side and said to the builder, many of the critics, “It’ll never stand.”

59 So have they said, “The Church will never rise.” So have they said, “The days of miracles is passed.” So have they said, that, “Old-time religion cannot be enjoyed anymore.”

60 But, oh, when this man placed all those materials together, he dug. He got blowers, and he blowed out those quick sand beds. He went on down, down, down, for hundreds of feet beneath the water, until he blowed that shifting sands away, until he put this concrete anchored in the rock on the bottom of the sea. Oh, it was a price, yes.

61 And anything that’s worth having, has a price attached to it. How great this salvation! What a great price!

But, he finally got down under the shifting sands.

62 And God has taken Christians and tried them, and tried them, had to brush them off, and brush them off, and brush them off, till finally, one of these days, He comes down to the solid Rock. Some man just takes this little wishy-washy experience of shaking hands and joining the church, and being sprinkled a few times, or baptized or something, and He washes all the shifting sands back until he’s anchored on the Rock, Christ Jesus. All devils in torment can’t move him.

63 The bridge builder knowed what he was doing. And when, finally, it was completed, some of them said, “It won’t stand. It’ll be dangerous for anything to cross it.”

64 He got, around, a bunch of engineers, and with railroads. And that day when they passed from South Sydney, going to North Sydney, across the span, he put about eight big freight trains loaded down. And he put the mayor of the city in a car, and he got in the front of it, walking, packing the flag. And as the great army and the big, eight big steam engines loaded down, marched across that bridge, with the builder taking the first place, going in front, she never even moved.

65 And Jesus Christ, God’s Son, Who is the Architect of the Church, come to this earth and laid down the foundation. When He met the devil, He was tested by the Word of God, and He said, “It is written, ‘Man shall not live by bread alone.’” When he took Him to the pinnacle of the temple, He said, “It is written.” See the material He was putting in His Church? He took Him to the mountain, and showed Him all the great programs He could have; He said, “It is written.”

66 All the Word of God was time-tested. And He is the great Captain that’s going before us, with His Own bloody coat waving, that, through the redeeming love of the Blood of Jesus Christ, has bought a Church, by the Holy Spirit that tested every bolt and every person that’s ever anchored in this great Church of the living God. It’s a time-tested material that does it.

67 And as He marches on, the great regime coming behind Him, as a born-again Church of the living God, She don't move, because we have received a Kingdom that cannot be moved. It's dug plumb to the solid Rock, of Christ Jesus, being the Chief Cornerstone. And as He goes before us, with His Own bloody coat, making the way, it's the sign of redemption.

68 Witnesses! "Ye shall be My witnesses, both in Jerusalem, and in Judaea, and in Samaria." His Church stands as His witness. Now, this morning, I'd like to say this and leave this to you. We are His witnesses after you have received the Holy Spirit. For there can only be one thing you can witness, that is, what you know to be the Truth.

69 That fellow could witness, after he had blowed all the sands away and found the solid rock on the breast of the earth. He was a witness that that would hold. He put the Geiger's and the machines on those great pieces of material and tested every one of them. He was a witness that they would hold, for he had seen it put to its strength and she held.

70 And we who are born-again of the Holy Spirit, that's been filled with God's Power, that's tasted the Eternal Life of the Eternal God, and That dwells in us, are witnesses of His goodness, and His Word, and His Power. It's no more a guess-so. It's a know-so, by experience.

71 Noah, when he built the ark, he gave witness to the unrighteous world that there was a righteous God. Although it seemed to be crazy when it was being built, but it proved out that it was the only boat that would float through the storm. And as it was being erected, it was . . . He condemned the unrighteous world, and justified those who believed in it.

72 How ridiculous, sometime, God does things, in the eyes of man. Did you ever stop to think what kind of wood that Noah built that boat out of? It was built out of shittim wood. And that is the softest wood that can be gotten. It's just like balsam. It's a . . . Why, you throw it in the lake out yonder, it would sink in five minutes. It's balsam wood, or shittim wood, has holes through it. And isn't it a strange thing that an ark was to stand the test of the great antediluvian destruction, was made out of soft wood? Well, it was applicable.

73 And sometime when we get so hard and set in our ways, God can't apply us to anything.

74 But here's the reason He did it: Did you notice? After he made it, then he boiled some tar, or some resin, it was, out of the other trees. Now, what does this mean? When he put the ark together, it was made out of this real light, soft wood. You could lift it around, very easy, it's so light and pliable. And then he cut down another tree which was a pine tree. And they beat that, the way they used to get it, beat it and beat it, until they beat the resin out of it. And then he took this resin and poured it into this light wood, and the little holes that was in the light wood filled up with the resin, encased, made it harder than steel.

⁷⁶ It passed right over the judgments, 'cause she went right through the... The water was the judgment, and it passed through the judgment. It was the witness that God knew what He was doing. Noah followed the Word of God. Many things could be said.

⁷⁷ Daniel was a witness that there was an Angel in Heaven, or a God in Heaven, that knowed the secrets of the heart, for He sent His Angel and delivered Daniel. Many others was witness.

⁷⁹ "Right in the middle of the day." When God had prophesied, before, when the sabbath would cease, said, "It'll be a time when the sun goes down in the middle of the day." "And from the sixth until the ninth hour, it was darkness." What was it? The sun... Now, a darkness doesn't mean it's got a little light in it. Darkness is absolutely total darkness, so dark, like it was in Egypt, till it could be felt. Not a ray of light!

⁸⁰ And the sun gave witness, "There's the One. That's the material that God is going to build the Church out of." The moon and stars gave witness. When He died, the heavens gave witness. The earth belched up, the rocks rent out. The earth give witness. And the saints that slept in the earth, dust of the earth, rose, gave witness.

⁸¹ The people at Pentecost, when they were making fun, Peter stood up and gave witness by some of that same Life that had been beat out of Him at Calvary, was poured into Peter, in the form of the Holy Ghost. And he stood there as a witness, God's Word, and he gave witness with a text out of the Scripture, that said, "You men of Judaea, you that dwell in Jerusalem, let this be known unto you, and hearken to my words. For these are not drunk, as you suppose, but this is that that was spoke of by the prophet Joel, 'It'll come to pass in the last days, I'll pour out of My Spirit upon all flesh.'" He was a witness.

83 Now let's take back to our Scripture reading. Jesus, coming off the mount, He was hungry. And He looked in a tree, and there was no fruit on it. He, perhaps, never raised His voice.

84 He never stood up, said, "Now gentlemen, stand to one side. I want to show you My power." He said . . . "And I have power to make that tree do such-and-such." He never said that.

85 He just walked up to him. He didn't find no—no nothing on it, so He said, "No man eateth from thee," walked away.

86 Peter heard it. And the next day, when he come by, oh, the tree was still there, but it was dead. And he remarked about it, how quick that tree had dried up, from its roots. Jesus said, "No . . ."

87 And, look, it wasn't the tree's fault. It was not time for figs yet. But He did it to magnify Himself, to prove Himself. To . . . He was the Messiah, and that was one of the testimonies that He was the Messiah. That was the seal of His Messiahship. The last seal was His resurrection, His ascension. That was the last seal of His Messiahship. What He done was a proof that He was. Now, He never went around, said, "All you trees die." He just did it there so that the disciples, that was going to write this Scripture later, would know that He was Messiah. See?

88 Now, then, when Peter asked this question, "Behold, how quick the tree withereth!"

89 Then He said to them, "If thou should say to this mountain, 'Be moved, and cast into the sea,' and don't doubt, but believe that what you say will come to pass, you'll have what you say."

90 Now listen. That's part of the material in this great economy of God, this great ship that we're in, the old ship of Zion, in the Body of Christ.

91 Now to the testimony! It has been some time, I've watched this. And now listen close now for a little teaching.

92 There's been times in life when all . . . when I have looked at the suffering, and see those who were afflicted and tormented with demon powers, my heart just bleeds for them. And, yet, I've had them to call me on the telephone, and in the meetings, that clamor, and move, and draw, and pull, and it's so hard to say "no" to those people. Frankly, I can't do it; somebody says it for me. I can't get to them. How my heart just bleeds for them. Day after day I go through the tortures of that, and I wonder sometimes.

93 And, I, then I console myself, by going back to Scripture, and see Him going through that place of Bethesda, and seeing all those crippled and afflicted; and went over to one man, healed him, laying on a pallet, and walked away and left the rest. But, still, down in my heart, that makes me . . . it doesn't take away that burning. Oh, how I wish there was something that could happen!

94 Then I've noticed, yonder in Portland, Oregon, when that maniac that night run to the platform, to kill me. I remember there, something happened, and it wasn't in the intellectuals at all. Intellectually, I would have run like the rest the preachers did. But, I didn't run. There was something; God was getting ready to display His powers.

95 One time, He said, "Be still and know that I am God." If the Church would only stand still long enough! God will do a little something, and they'll get all excited and run around, doing it, see, get out of the will of God. Be still.

96 One time He was going to show His Power in the Red Sea. He said, "Red Sea, you just stand still." And He marched His children right through it. What if they would turn around, say, "Let's do it again, Lord"? It wouldn't have happened. Certainly not.

97 One time He needed a little time to fight a battle through. God just made the sun stand still, yonder, to watch what He's going to do. Yeah. "Now, sun, you just stand still, yonder, a few minutes. I'm going to show you something." Now what if, the next day, Joshua say, "Sun, stand still"? It wouldn't have done it. God was going to do something. He was going to give a witness to His Power. His Word, He's Almighty, and He's give a witness to It.

98 One time, there was a blind man come out from Jericho. And as Jesus passed through, the blind man screamed, "Have mercy on me!" And the Bible said, "And Jesus stood still, said, 'Bring him here.'" Oh, my! Christ stood still, for God was going to use Him to show His Power.

99 There might have been a hundred more blind men down the road; I don't know. Perhaps the priest saying, "Come here a minute! Who are You Who raised the dead? Raise . . . We got a graveyard full of them. We heard You raised Lazarus." But, God was confirming His Messiahship. That's what He was doing. Certainly.

100 Now, I've often wondered what takes place. But there is a place that men can live, so close, in the Presence of God, it's not by your choosing, it's by God's election, that you live in that spot, to where your own intellectuals has nothing no more to do with it.

101 Down in South Africa, I was challenged by a bunch of witch doctors. And standing there, one among the dozen or more, and them trying to throw spells on me. But God just made them stand still and watch the Glory of God to restore sight, and blindness, stuff to the afflicted people.

¹⁰² Yonder in Karlsruhe, Germany, one afternoon when the spiritualist come out, to . . . they wanted to fuss with me, at the hotel. The man wouldn't let them come in. They said, "We'll throw a spell on that meeting this afternoon and there'll be no one come . . ." No, said, "We'll blow it down, with a storm." And the sky was just pretty and bright. But when we got over there and just started the singing, up come a great powerful storm. There was about twenty on one side of me, and twenty on the other. And they were all going through their enchantments and cutting their feathers with scissors, and going through things like that, to throw the spell. And, all of a sudden, that great thirty-thousand tent begin to quiver and shake, and the winds blowing. And I was preaching. And Something said, "Stand still."

¹⁰³ Hallelujah! I don't say excuse me. That means, "Praise our God!"

¹⁰⁴ And God made that storm stand still, move back, to see the praises of God, where about forty thousand souls, that day and night, swept into the Kingdom of God, by it. "Stand still." That's right. He gives witness.

¹⁰⁵ Yonder in Sweden or Switzerland . . . Well, here, I'll say, over in Finland, one day, a little dead boy was laying on the side of the road, automobile had run over him, mashed his little body to pieces. He was so broke up until his foot was even through his stocking. The car run over him and racked him up, like a rag like that, and kicked him way up in the air and throwed him across the road. His eyes was bulged out. His mouth was open. His tongue was hanging out and blood running from his ears. But, two years before there, God had showed the vision of it. And I had walked up so stupid, and looked at the child; walked away, crying.

¹⁰⁶ And the Lord, or someone, supernatural, put their hands on my shoulder. Said, "Isn't that the boy I've showed you?" Oh, what a feeling!

¹⁰⁷ There stood the mayor of the city, the Chief Man, he's called, and many standing by. And God had them to stand still, that He could show His mighty Power to raise the dead, bring him back to life again. "Stand still." Believe God, and be a witness. His Word is Eternal.

¹⁰⁸ It was a few days ago, when we were . . . Just to see how God does things so simple! And we're so flusterated, till we look for great big things. Be satisfied with little things. Watch Him when He does His glorious works, how He protects you. Don't be looking way over the top of something; look down here.

¹⁰⁹ Notice. I begin to think this, that it is possible that when a man, like the apostles, and when you can live close to God; and God, through His grace, operates through you; that the more of God you get, the more godly you become. The more Eternal Life comes in, the more of the intellectual It pushes out.

¹¹¹ And now watch. I've seen it work. And to think that if you'll get into that contact with God, it becomes till it isn't your voice anymore. It's not your thought anymore. It becomes God's thought and God's Voice. You are just a vine, or, just a branch, He's the Vine, and it's His Spirit that goes in and energizes. As long as you can get yourself out of the way, He'll fill it up, and then you can be a witness.

Just like Noah's ark was a witness.

¹¹² Like Jesus was a witness of God. He become so full of God till Him and God was one. "God dwelt in Christ, reconciling the world to Himself," the very Expression. A man's work declares his character, Christ was God's work, and Christ declared God's character: His feeling for the sick, His longing for saving of souls, till even He gave His Own life. God's work . . . God's character was declared in Christ.

¹¹⁵ I'm saying this now, excuse it, as being a personal experience, but I want to tell you because it's a modern time. Someone said, "Oh, well, those things happened back in the days of the prophets. In the days . . ." Well, God was showing examples. But did you know, today, God is building a Church? You say, "Well, He had prophets. They had to speak the Word of God." But, He's got a Church of God, today.

¹¹⁶ Notice, there's something takes place. Wish it could be all the time. I would to God that it could be all the time, but it doesn't. It just comes at His will.

¹¹⁷ Now, a few days ago, or about two or three weeks ago, I was praying for people with leukemia. I was praying with people, waiting for vision, that's sick and suffering. Many I've waited on, for years.

118 For instance, little Edith Wright, crippled. I remember when her daddy was laying, dying, and God showed a vision for her daddy, and let Edith lay there.

119 There's a little woman, I—I guess she's still in here. Mrs. Geiger, from Fort Wayne, pitiful-looking little mother, a young woman. She gave birth to a baby. And the baby was so big; she was so little, it run her into cancer. And God healed her of the cancer. Now she's got almost a mental break, from nervousness. She's in the menopause. And the poor little thing. . . And a real loyal husband. And the little fellow has went everywhere, praying, and seeking, and crying. And me praying for such as that.

120 And you know what happened? Brother Wood back there, his daddy came down, a Jehovah Witness. Brother Wood was a Jehovah Witness. God witnessed and declared Himself to him, by healing his boy, David, cripple.

121 Then his brother came down. And his brother was living an immoral life. And there the Holy Spirit turned around and rebuked him. Seen the woman he was running with, and he surrendered his life and let every devil go out of him that day. And he's walking the streets now and doing everything he can to serve God, testifying to his people.

122 Then, his poor old daddy, honest as he could be, in all of his dealings as a farmer, so forth. And when his daddy come down, he wanted me to go fishing with him, and we went down to the lake.

123 On the road down, a vision came, that morning. And He said, "Every lake that you cross and every stream of water, will be muddy; no fishing. But when you get down to the Wolf Creek there, to the Dale Hollow," said, "that's going to be pretty and blue. And you have never caught a catfish in that water, but you're going to catch a whole string of them. And," said, "they're going to catch one or two little ones. And then you're going to catch a big fish, with a scale fish. It'll be big, of a specie."

124 I turned around and quoted it to them. I watched the old man's eyes, as he looked over towards his boys. When we went down there and got in the water. . . Every lake was muddy, going down. When we got there, it was just as blue, it would hurt your eyes, nearly. And we fished, and we couldn't catch a bass, crappie, or anything. And, all of sudden, I started catching catfish, and caught a whole string of them. Some of them, five pounds, apiece. And sometimes two on one line, with pole and line. We fished, and got a string of fish.

125 And the next morning, I went back, fishing. I caught one great big bluegill, was. . . or what we call the red-belly sunfish, the biggest I ever seen.

126 Then, when the man come to me, I said, “Now, sir, the Bible said, ‘If there be one among you who is spiritual, and a prophet, and what he says comes to pass, then hear him. If it doesn’t. . .’” And I took four outstanding prophecies of Jehovah Witness and showed him that none of them had come to pass; every one of them failed. I said, “Now what about the fish?”

127 And God showed that vision, to change that man and turn him around, for that one man, where there was thousands laying, suffering. It’s the sovereignty of Almighty God, to let you know that He declares His doings by His work, and His character is declared by the same.

128 Look at the pool of Bethesda. You say, “That don’t sound like God doing that.” Look at the crippled, lame, halt, blind, withered, waiting. And here come Jesus right through there, garments full of virtue; and walked to a man, and went to a man who could walk, do anything he wanted to, but had some kind of retarded disease. And healed him, and left the rest of them standing there. See? His character. He wanted to show His Powers. He wanted to do something. Yeah, the world stand still, to notice it.

129 Now notice, day before yesterday, when we went back. I come back, the Indianapolis meeting, and I thought I’d have to stay just a little while, away from the people, till I got kind of rested up, ’cause I’d have twenty or thirty, a day, on private interviews, and those visions coming. I was just about dead when I got home. No one knows what I go through on that; no one. There’s no way to explain it. But then Brother Wood, and his brother and I, run off down to the place, and to fish again, for a day and night.

130 And that afternoon, sitting back there, Brother Wood begin to speak about an old woman that used to belong to the Anderson church of God, up here, when they were in their bloom. “How good!” Said how she used to take them little Jehovah Witness boys and love them. And Brother Wood said to his brother, Lyle; he said, “Lyle, would it not be great now, if we would go find that old sister and let her know that we’re saved?”

131 Now, that word found favor with God. After been talking about God for a long time, but that word found favor. Those two Jehovah Witness boys, both of them aged men, wanting to find an old woman and tell her that they were saved, two brothers.

132 When they said that, the Spirit of God and His sovereignty fell on me, sitting there in that boat. Oh, I wish I could had voice, some way, and I could sink that into the people’s heart. I could not no more control myself than you could fly to the moon; just by that word. And I said, “Boys, there is something fixing to happen. It’s a little animal of some sort. It'll be brought to life. There's going to be life connected with it. And you will see it right away."

¹³³ And I thought, "Now what have I said?" And I begin to think of some things. "What made me say that?" No vision. It was just Something spoke. What was it? It wasn't my intellectuals; I couldn't even think of such a thing. It was down below that. It was in the heart that God had come into. He was doing the speaking. I didn't, even wasn't thinking of such a thing, and It spoke.

¹³⁴ I think there is where Jesus said, "If thou believest in thy heart, and shall say to this tree, or to this mountain. And then don't doubt, but believe that what you say will come to pass, you'll have what you say."

¹³⁷ That night, we went, and the Lord gave us a great night of fishing. No one caught any fish . . . And we caught three there, just in a few minutes, and the three weighed nearly twenty pounds. And we just had great strings of fish.

¹³⁸ The next morning, we went back and was putting the baits, new, on the line, and not one fish. It was over. I said, "Let us go into this little cove and rest a few minutes, brethren. And we shall fish for bluegills, with a fly line."

¹³⁹ We went back up there and was fishing for bluegills, back in the little cove, with our boat. And every time, we just stopped long enough, the motor would stop. We wasn't fishing; we were talking about God.

¹⁴⁰ And Mr. Lyle, which is now . . . He went to his sister, try to get her out of Jehovah Witness. And she told him, she—she told him he was listening to devils; that we were devils.

¹⁴¹ Said, "Lyle, you know better that that. And all these certain things."

¹⁴² Then, Lyle caught a little bluegill, about like that. And he was talking, so he let the little fellow swallow the big hook. It went plumb down into the stomach of the little fish. And when he got a hold of it, he couldn't pull it. So he just squeezed it in his hand, wrapped it around and pulled the entrails out of it. Had to get this hook out of the mouth, for if he cut the hook off, it would . . . dead fish, going to die anyhow. And here is the words that he said, "You sure shot your wad, little fellow," and threwed him into the water.

¹⁴³ And he flipped three or four times, and went circling down through the blue waters, till he hit the bottom. Laid there just a few minutes.

And he come back up, the top water, and fluttered three or four times. His little fins straightened out, like that, laid sideways, curled over. And for about twenty minutes, us fishing, he had done floated back into the wilderness, back up into some trash. And I . . .

¹⁴⁴ And someone said, “Them little fish is really having a breakfast, they’re feeding.”

I said, “Yes. That’s right.”

¹⁴⁵ And we said, “Oh, isn’t God great!” And Brother Wood said, “Oh, it’s so great, Brother Branham! We have the privilege of being here with you.” [Blank spot on tape—Ed.]

¹⁴⁶ “Oh,” I said, “don’t think that, Brother Wood. This,” I said, “it’s not a—it’s not the holy mountain. It’s not the holy place. It’s the holy God. Not a holy man, but a holy God.” [Blank spot on tape—Ed.]

¹⁴⁷ And while we were talking, Something moved on me. Said, “I’m going to show My Power now.” Before I knew what I was talking about, that Scripture come to my mind, “Whatsoever thou saith, believe that it shall come to pass, in your heart. Say it, and you’ll have what you say.” I—I can just almost . . . It was flooding out of me.

And I thought, “What’s this going on?”

¹⁴⁸ Lyle and Banks sitting there. We were fishing. The little, dead fish been laying, about twenty minutes, all curled over there, floated back into the place; his little entrails hanging out of his mouth. And I looked at that little fish, and the thought come to me, “He said to the fishermen, ‘Cast on the other side of the boat.’ They took His Word. Peter said, ‘Lord, we’ve fished all night, and took nothing. Nevertheless, at Your Word, we’ll throw the net.’” There it is, “At the Word!”

¹⁴⁹ Something said to me, “God knows the fish. Just speak the Word and watch what happens to that fish.”

¹⁵⁰ I said, “Little fish, in the Name of Jesus Christ, come back to life.”

¹⁵¹ And God, my solemn judge, with them two men standing there, that little fish turned on his side and swam away from there as hard as he could go, alive again. “Speak the Word!” Almighty God, as I stand here before Him in the presence of this company and this Bible, knows that’s the truth.

¹⁵² When people are dying, and yet God showed His Power to those Je- . . . two Jehovah Witness, that He is the resurrection and Life, and there’s nothing but what He knows about. “Thou sayest, and believe that what you say comes to pass, you’ll have what you say.”

¹⁵³ What was it? God showing His Power; not me, just a vine . . . or a branch. He energized the branch so I couldn’t keep from uttering them voices. What would I ever thought of a little, dead fish laying there, when we even had them cut up and baited on the line? That little fish hanging there, laying there, dead.

¹⁵⁴ Mr. Wood and them sitting right here, looking at me now, a witness of that. And the Spirit of God swept down through that valley, until you'd thought the Rapture was coming. Even, till, Mr. Wood screamed out and said, "Oh, it's good to be here!" Said, "Brother Branham, we're so happy to be here!" The only expression they could give was to me being their brother. And I turned quickly . . . Cause, they seen that God had used me to speak life to a fish.

¹⁵⁵ And, now, that sounds crazy, but that's the same God that spoke life to that dead opossum laying yonder in the yard. He's Alpha and Omega, the Begin and the End. He's the Life, the resurrection. He's the Power, the everlasting One. The same yesterday, today, and forever!

¹⁵⁶ That gives me to know this, that some day, when life is gone from this mortal body, and I lay yonder, still, if He's interested in a fish, surely He's interested in me and you, who are trying to serve Him. And some glorious day He'll come. Not the branch, but the Vine Itself will speak from Its headquarters in Glory, and those which are asleep in Christ shall rise and go to everlasting Life.

¹⁵⁷ What a feeling! No one could express it. When you see a dead fish laying on the water, with his entrails pulled through his mouth, by a big-handed man who squeezed the fish, like this, and took it and wrenched it. And you could hear it tearing, when he tore the entrails from the fish. Threw the little fellow in the water. He quivered four or five times, and kicked over, and that was it. To see that little fellow, just in a moment of speaking that Word, [Brother Branham snaps his fingers—Ed.] swing hisself back in condition, just alive as he ever was, and swim down through that water, just as hard as he could go, going back out to join his fellow fish.

¹⁵⁸ He is God. He knowed that fish was there. Just the same as He knowed that one had a coin in its mouth. Just the same as He knowed if he'd throw . . . If those people, they say . . . In Saint Mark the 5th chapter, It said that Jesus borrowed Peter's boat there and went out fishing. Now, He said, "Let down for the draught." When they had fished, when . . . They even knowed they had fished all night and caught nothing. Just as we had done the same thing, and caught nothing. But, God wanted to see if they'd take His Word, so He said, "Let down the net for the draught." If there was no fish there, taking God at His Word will put some there. That's all there was to it.

159 Then, that same God, in His same character that was in the beginning, is the same God by the same character today. He's the First, the Last. He's the same yesterday, today, and forever. He is still God.

160 So, you who are here this morning, and prayed for, let me tell you something. Seeing these testimonies, and God is witness whether they're true or not, that's right, you're looking for great things. You're trying to look over some great big something over here, when it's right next to you. That's right. The very God that put the hunger in your soul, to come be prayed for, is the very same God that gave life to that fish; the very same God that stopped that bull in the field; the very same God that slayed that maniac there in my presence; the same God that brought Daniel from the lions' den; the same God that said, "Cast your nets on this other side, and take for the draught." He's the same yesterday, today, and forever.

161 His works cannot fail. His character cannot fail. And His works declare His character, so He's arisen today and He's here in our midst, the same yesterday, today, and forever. And we're witnesses of His character.

162 His character has changed me. When it come to me, I was once a sinner; and now I'm saved. I was once lost; now I'm found. I once loved the things of the world; I hate it now. I once cared not for God; I love Him now. Something happened to me. Something happened to you. What is it? It's God's work declaring His character.

163 He loves us. He's interested in your welfare. He's interested in your healing. He's interested in your soul. Won't you let Him have His way in your life? Don't you doubt Him for nothing. You go, believing Him, and God will give you the desire of your heart, for it's His good will to do it. He longs to do it. But, the thing of it is, we get all flusterated. Stand still!

164 Look at it, say, "God, that means me. No matter who prays for me, what prays for me." It doesn't take a Oral Roberts, a Billy Graham, or a William Branham, or a A. A. Allen. It takes God. That's right. It takes your faith, anchored yonder in God.

165 Say, "God, It is the Truth, and there alone I stand." And let that just keep in here, until it drops down into here, from your head to your heart, be . . . and becomes a reality, then it'll work. Only can it work when it comes to the heart.

166 The Lord bless you now, while we bow our heads. Put your desire on your heart. Place it before God, right now, (Will you do it?) while we pray. If it's for salvation, if it's for . . . Whatever it's for, you place it before God right now when we pray.

My faith looks up to Thee,
 Thou Lamb of Calvary,
 Saviour Divine;
 Now hear me while I pray,
 Take all my guilt away,
 Oh let me from this day
 Be wholly Thine!

While life's dark maze I tread,

Get quiet now.

And griefs around me spread,
 Be Thou my Guide;
 Bid darkness turn to day,
 Wipe all my fears away,
 Nor let me ever stray
 From Thee aside.

¹⁶⁷ Blessed Lord, we could say like those who stood on the mount that day, and said, "It's good for us to be here. And we would to build three tabernacles, put pastors in each." But the Voice quickly turned and said, "Hear ye Him. He's My Son." Now let us turn from pastors, from the Moseses and Elijahs, and from the great men of the earth, although we're thankful for all of them. But, You said for us to hear Him.

¹⁶⁸ And His Word said this, (not the pastor's word, neither the evangelist's), "Whatsoever things you desire, when you pray, believe you receive them, you shall have them. If you should say to this mountain, 'Be moved, and be cast into the sea,' and don't doubt in your heart, but believe that what you say shall come to pass, you shall have what you say." Not necessarily would it be momentarily, neither was it momentarily with Abraham and Sarah.

¹⁶⁹ But You said, "If you believe that what you say shall come to pass, you shall have what you say." Now, Father, here is our prayer. Take us just now. Take our hearts into Thy hand and squeeze them real tight with love, pushing all the fear and unbelief from them, making them hollow and empty. And then fill them immediately with Thy Spirit, as the tar and pitch went into the ark, to keep fear and doubt from ever coming to our hearts again. And make us of Thy workmanship, that You might declare Your character, to the world, through us, as written epistles read of all men.

¹⁷⁰ May every one that was . . . been anointed, that's what You said do, may they be healed, today, from, every person, from the common toothache, to the blind, afflicted, or whatever it might be, may that faith anchor now into that heart that was fearing and doubting when it come in.

171 And, O God, I always remember. . . Myself, we three men; as Peter, James and John stood on Mount Transfiguration and seen what You did there. We'll never forget that little cove down yonder in Fanny Creek, as long as we have memories and recollections. It might not mean much to the world, but when we seen the omnipotence of God, the omnipresence of the living God move down and have sympathy, enough upon mankind, to show Your Power, through bringing the little fish that was dead on the waters, back to life again, that goes plumb over the top of a skeptic or an unbeliever. But, how it registers in the Christian heart!

172 We know that Thou art God. You're the same God here in this room this morning. How much more do You care for the people in this room, of men and women, as You do for a little fish! What did that little fish mean to You? Nothing; just declaring Your work. And I pray, God, that You'll declare Your works in every man and woman, boy and girl, in here today.

173 If there be some here, Lord, who does not know You, as their Saviour, have not yet experienced, and would want to empty their heart out, today, from all the things and the trash of the world, that You might fill their heart with love, as Noah did the ark with the pitch, I pray that You will be with them, in these fleeting minutes now that's left in the program. Grant it, Father, through Jesus' Name.

And while our heads are bowed:

May Thy rich grace impart
Strength to my fainting heart,
My zeal inspire;

174 Now, if you want Christ, while they're singing, want to empty up your heart, this morning, and God to take you just as you are there, would you raise your hand to Him? Say, "Remember me." God bless you, sir. And you, sir. You, sister. You, brother. You. Someone else, over on my right? Raise your hand. God bless you, sister. Someone else say, "I want to empty my heart." God bless you, sister, back there.

Let me from this day
Be wholly Thine!

175 Someone else want to raise their hand now, just before prayer?

176 Father God, You seen every hand. Seven or eight, ten hands went up. They're now emptying out all their fears and unbelief. They're now claiming Thee as their all-sufficient One, as their Lover, as their Saviour, as their Healer. All doubts and fears, they're desiring to be taken from them. I pray that You'll grant it, Lord, by Your great grace. Let it happen just today.

¹⁷⁷ You Who could speak life to a fish; speak life to a little dead boy; speak life to Elij' Perry laying there, dead, and his hands crossed; speak life to a little, dead baby yonder in Mexico; spoke life yonder in Lazarus, after being dead four days, how much more can we take our stand, today, on the Rock of His Eternal Word, and look beyond this shadow of doubt, to Him that said, "I am the resurrection and Life." May faith take its resting place now on Him, that solid Rock, Christ. And may they receive everything that they've asked for. Hear our prayers as we pray in Christ's Name. Amen.

I love Him, I love Him
 Because He first loved me
 And purchased my salvation
 On Calvary's tree.

¹⁷⁸ Now while we sing again, shake hands with someone near you. Just sit still now, we're . . . The service is not over yet, see.

I love Him,
 Purchased my salvation
 On Calvary's tree.

¹⁷⁹ You feel all scoured out? You feel better now? You feel like . . . ? The Word! It's—it's—it's—it's the cleansing Blood of the Lord Jesus, that goes right to the heart, cleanses us from all sin and iniquity.

And purchased my salvation
 On Calvary's tree.
 Now, Brother Neville.
