
THE HANDWRITING ON THE WALL

I would just like to ask Brother Neville, if he and his sister would sing a special for us, just before. Would you like that? [Congregation says, “Amen.”—Ed.] We all enjoy to hear them on the radio. All right.

² [Brother Neville says, “Is she here tonight, or not? She’s not here tonight, I don’t guess. Just wasn’t here tonight, I suppose.” A sister says, “They ain’t here.”—Ed.] They said, “She didn’t. . .” She isn’t here, he doesn’t think. [“She didn’t show up yet. She was supposed to be here.”] Well, if she shows up before we get started, we’ll have her to sing anyhow. So, we’d like that.

⁴ And, now, been having some wonderful times in the Lord, and the Lord has been blessing us, in—in praying for the sick and the afflicted. Up in Saskatchewan, Canada, where we just returned from, our kind Heavenly Father answered prayer in a marvelous way up there. And we had a wonderful, wonderful meeting among the people. And many people were saved; and those who came back to the Lord, who had strayed away. And many great signs our Lord did in the midst of us. And so we’re happy for all of that.

⁵ I just left a pathetic case. Our Brother Burns, that used to come here at the tabernacle, they found him the other day, with cancer in his body. And so we . . . They didn’t think he was going to make it, just a few days longer. He’ll be in now to worship with us, maybe, Wednesday night, and back again on the . . . in the service of the Lord.

⁶ And we dropped by to have prayer for a little boy, out here in the hospital. I believe the . . . Brother Curtis Hooper, I don’t know whether he’s here tonight or not, but he was . . . And Brother Cox called me, and a little boy that’s been unconscious for ten weeks, that was . . . hit a place up here on Bull Creek Hill, it was. His brakes failed, going down the hill. And I talked to his mother . . . And they—they go to a church, but, they, none of them had really, I don’t believe, ever been born again. And they made a promise to God. If the Lord would let the little boy wake up, that, they would—they would serve the Lord with all their heart. So that’s a good thing. And I—I believe that God will let the little boy wake up now. He's just a lad. He looked . . . laying there, and he is all fallen away. They can't eat, of course, he's been unconscious ten weeks. And his legs are broke, and they can't even set his legs or nothing, because he isn't conscious to set. And that's a pathetic case.

7 And think if that was your child. And it's something, we ought to really think about that. And we are praying, and I want you to join with me now. The mother has give her promise to God that she'll seek Him with all of her heart. And will . . . The little boy, as soon as he wakes up, I told her to call me. And if I wasn't here, to let me know soon as we got in. I want to go to the little lad, to—to speak to him.

8 And I just can't think of his name just now. I had it in my pocket, but I forget. They live up, somewhere, up in the—the north Charlestown, somewhere up that way. And it's a very pathetic case, so pray for that little boy. Which, I . . .

9 Well, let's just . . . After we prayed, let's just start thanking God, for He is going to answer their prayer. You know, Abraham was strong giving God praise for things that seemed to be impossible. And he got stronger, all the time, instead of getting weaker. He waited ten years, still the same; twenty years, still the same. And after he was ninety, or a hundred years old, and he was still giving God praise, because he knew it would happen. God said so, and that settled it. That's enough. When God says so, that—that's enough to settle it.

10 Now, in the worship this afternoon, we . . . I . . . Last Sunday, I was here, but I was just so tired I could hardly get down. So I thought I'd come tonight. Next week, we're going to California now, to the old Azusa Street rally.

11 And two years ago, in California, when we was at the Cow Palace, where the . . . in California, in a meeting. Why, I happened to think, that, Pentecost is fifty years old, this year in America. This is fifty years of Pentecost. Fifty years ago, the Holy Spirit fell first at Azusa Street, and the old Azusa Street Mission in California.

12 And then, the Lord willing, I believe, maybe, if the Lord will give me to open this service, on—on next . . . the sixteenth. And, then, I'll have the first two nights; then Oral Roberts takes next; and then, I think, Jack Coe, next; and on down, so, then, for several nights.

13 And I'm going just a little early because Brother Espinoza who is my . . . was my translator down in Mexico a few weeks ago, where twenty thousand, one night, came to the Lord Jesus, by the resurrection of a little dead baby, that had died that afternoon in its mother's arms.

14 And how many got The Voice of Healing this month? I guess you seen the picture of it in there? And he . . . it's a . . . he's going . . . He's got the Mexican people all, of San Fernando Valley, gathered together up there, under a tent or something, for three-days meeting, prior to the—to the Azusa Street rally. So be much in prayer for me this week.

15 Then, the Lord willing, the following weekend, be back here at the tabernacle, for another service here. And then we go from there up to . . . up into Idaho, and then back down to California in the tent, over to Phoenix, and they're planning now, on getting the summer season for overseas.

And we're just rejoicing with you all in the blessings of the Lord.

16 Now, tonight, I see it's communion night, and we love that. And we'll not speak too long, but just speak a while. And then if there's sick here, that . . . I believe I see they brought a cot out, to bring someone in, and so we will pray for those who are needy. Some colored man asked me last evening, over here, would it be all right for him to come over and be prayed for.

And I said, "Certainly, my brother. Everybody."

17 He said, "Whosoever will, let him come." May, "Whosoever!" Just your color, don't make any difference to that. Your soul could be just as clear in the sight of God, as the man of another color, you see.

18 "God is made of one blood, all nations, one blood." Did you know, that colored man, in dying, he could give you a blood transfusion? You know, the yellow man can give the brown man, the brown man the black man, the black man the white man? But don't you never put no animal blood in you; you'll die. So, that shows it, see. So, we never come from animals. We are a human blood, that's right, created by God.

19 And now, just for a little lesson tonight, I thought timely. I wanted to, over . . . And my subject tonight is: The Handwriting On The Wall. And knowing that the time that we're living in, just before the Coming of the Lord Jesus. And seeing the old Azusa Street come up now, to a fifty years that the Holy Spirit has been in America, and to see that the rejecting of It, in the whole, I believe, it would be very timely tonight, if we would read in Daniel and find out just some of the things that's been foreshadowed to us in this day.

But before we open His Book, shall we just bow our heads and speak to Him just a moment?

20 Our Heavenly Father, to Thee we give praise tonight for all the goodness and mercy that we poor unworthy creatures has received of Thee by Thy amazing grace.

21 O God, when we're there ten thousand years, as the poet said, "We'll have no less days to sing Thy praise than when we first begun." What a time that will be! Knowing that it's in the near future, that we have this great hope, and wait with great anticipations, on looking upon the face of Him Who has been invisible in our midst and has blessed us so miraculously.

22 Will You just come, tonight, Father. As we open up the Word, may the Holy Spirit get right in the Word and carry It right out into the audience, into every heart prepared. The ground is all laid, the seed fall into good ground, and bring forth a hundredfold. Grant it, Father. For we ask it in the Name of Thy lovely Child, the Lord Jesus. Amen.

23 In the way of reading the Word . . . I always feel that my own words is not much, but they will fail, because it's just a man's word. But God's Word never fails. Just so . . .

24 Was quoting to a man, today, that had kind of thought he had—he had trusted the Lord for his healing, and he had failed to receive his healing. And then he become discouraged and said, “If I haven't got faith enough to be healed, maybe, I haven't faith enough to be saved.”

25 I told him. I said, “The basis of Divine healing is not on the same level as on salvation.” Divine healing is something that was thrown in, to the believer. But, salvation, when you're . . . When you receive Christ and are born again, you have an immortal Life that cannot perish or get old. It can never die. It can never . . . It's just finished, forever, when you're born of the Spirit of God. But, this body, it gets sick and weak, and God helps us and heals us, and we get sick again. And it's just temporarily until the journey is finished. But, salvation is permanent forever. Amen. That doesn't fail.

26 And now, in the Word, “Faith cometh by hearing and hearing of the Word. And over in the 5th chapter of Daniel, we read, as a way for a text, in the 22nd verse.

And thou his son, O Belshazzar, has not humbled thine heart, though thou knowest all of this;

27 And may the Lord add His blessings to the reading of His Word. All the old things, of the Old Testament, was only a shadow of the new things to come. Those things happened back there, to give us the—the foreknowledge of what we might expect in this day, if we serve the Lord, and what we might expect if we do not serve the Lord. And if we serve Him half-heartedly, or whole-heartedly.

28 In Hebrews, it said, “Seeing that we are compassed about with such a great cloud of witnesses, let us lay aside every sin, every weight, and the sin that doth so easily beset us, that we might run with patience the race that is set before us.”

29 Now, all those old things, Daniel . . . I've chose the Book of Daniel; like it very much. Haven't taught on It for quite a little while. But, because, it was a pre-shadow of the great day that we're living in. And, in Daniel's day was the issuing in of the Gentile age. God had dealt with the Jews till this time, and now He is turning to the Gentile. And in this great prophecy, and visions and dreams of Daniel, and of Nebuchadnezzar and Belteshazzar, and many of the characters that's in the Book of Daniel, was all set in order; that we might see today. And how that, in the vision of Daniel, of seeing the interpretation of the image of the beast, and everything of the Gentile age, just how one kingdom would succeed another, until it come down to the very end days that where we're living now.

³⁰ And to see, in the Middle East, all these things rising up, these troubles, little nations up there who has not been thought of, or even spoke of, for many, many hundreds, yes, thousands of years. Maybe two thousand years, or twenty-five hundred, nothing has been said much about those little countries, until just these last days.

³¹ And the very valuable things that we thought was insignificant, places like the Dead Sea, and we find out that the Dead Sea has got more treasure in it than all the rest of the world put together, and all the uranium mines and everything else. Just a little thing that England was willing to submit back to the Arabs. And said, "There wasn't nothing to it." Why would they want them ol' rock lands? But they failed to know, the Bible said, that, "She would blossom like a rose and would bring forth her abundance."

³³ During this time of the carrying away into Babylon, was a very marking time. First, they were carried down into Egypt. Second, they were carried into Babylon, and the Gentiles was issued in. And then, the third, they were carried, or scattered by the Roman Empire.

³⁴ And 1947, on May the 7th, they were once more recognized among the nations of the world, for the first time for twenty-five hundred years, the Jews was. The beginning of the end. The fig tree putting forth its buds. The old six-point star of David, the oldest flag that's ever flown on the earth, rose to the flagpole again, for the first time for twenty-five hundred years, marking a definite promise that God said to the Hebrew prophets would take place. "He would raise up an ensign."

35 And when we see that waving over Jerusalem, tonight, seeing God hardening the hearts of men like Stalin, Hitler, Mussolini, and all those to persecute the Jews, and run them back to the homeland, we know the time is at hand. Oh, what a day and what an opportunity, that even the weakest of Christian has today, to testify for the glory of the Lord Jesus. What an opportunity to do something that the prophets desired to do. And it's laid into the hands of the feeblest Christian. The little housewife, it's in her hands today, to testify to the Lord Jesus and His resurrection.

36 And the Jews had gotten away from God, got cold, backslid. And God permitted a strange nation to come in, which had been prophesied by the prophets, and would scatter them and carry them away, because they had got away from God.

37 And now, if God so loved the Jews and were His first chosen, as a people. He called the Jews out. And, yet, when they sowed, they had to reap what they sowed. And we're not expelled, or we're not immune from God's judgments, when we disobey His commands. That's right. That goes for nations, or individuals, or churches, or whatever it is. When we disobey God, we will receive judgment for it. God is just, and can do nothing else. But, "Every man shall receive a just recompense of reward for his deeds that's done."

38 And, now, how that in that great time of sliding away, and the falling away of the Jews, and God permitted a heathen nation to come over and carry away the chosen, down into captivity, because they had not served the Lord with a full heart. Very beautiful picture of the day we're living. Yet, we have been a chosen and a selected people, a blessed people, above any of the rest of the world. But when we forget God's commandments, and cause the great drinking and rioting, and divorce and adultery, and things that we are putting up and making it absolutely legal in this nation, God has got nations that can come and take it any time He wants to.

39 You heard that commentator the other day that just left Russia. Said they had—they had at least ten thousand jet bombers that can never even stop to fuel, and loaded in their hangars with atomic bombs, that could fly over America and return back without even fueling. Think. Each—each plane carrying at least eight or ten atomic and hydrogen bombs, which could put a hundred and fifty million people to . . . this nation to a total annihilation in one hour's time. And we wade on in sin, corruption, forsaking the Lord, doing the things that's contrary to His will, and laughing and making fun of those who are trying to do right. What else could we expect but a repeat of the carrying away into Babylon, just right!

40 Notice, in there, God had a servant down there by the name of Daniel, a young prophet about forty years old, who was serving the Lord with all of his heart, and God had a work for him to do. And in the carrying away of Babylon . . .

41 Remember, if God has a work for you to do, all the demons out of torment can't take you. They just can't startle you in any way. God has got a purpose for the Holy Ghost Church, and all the devils of hell will never be able to take it away. God has got a purpose for It. And It'll never be destroyed, until God lets It fulfill the purpose that He has ordained It to do. And It will.

42 And remember, as Daniel went with the Hebrew children down in there, I want you to notice, many of them already worldly-minded, many of them didn't care, while they just go with the tide of least resistance.

43 And isn't that just about the picture of our country today? And this may be shocking, but it's about the picture of the church today, let alone the nation; just float with the tide of least resistance. Ever way the wind blows, just set your sail, go right on.

44 O God, give us men like Daniel. Give us Christians like Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego, who are willing to sacrifice or forfeit every right that they have, to become a servant of the Lord.

45 Notice. Daniel, when he went down into Babylon, he knowed he was going among unbelievers, the uncircumcised. And when he went down there, he knowed he would be entangled with them; not because that he wanted to be, but because the nation had fell and he had to go into captivity with them. But God was with him as an alien. I love that. No, though we be an alien, God still will be with you.

46 A little story, I don't know . . . I've told it so many times. I might have told it at the tabernacle, but it comes right into my heart at this time. Here some time ago, down into the southlands, they used to buy slaves. And they would buy them and have the brokers to go buy, just like they do a used car lot today; selling people, the colored race, for slaves. And when they did, people would go by the old plantations, and they'd see a bunch of slaves; if they looked like good workers, he would offer a certain price, buy these slaves and take them and sell them for good workers somewhere else, and make a profit on the exchange.

47 Now, one day a broker came by, and he saw a bunch of slaves working on a certain plantation, a hundred or more slaves, and they were sad because they were away from home. Many times they would whip them because they wouldn't work. They thought they'd never go home again; babies they would never see; papa and mama they would never see; their relation they would never see. And they were very downcast, as it's so easily to become, especially when you are oppressed.

48 That's what the devil likes to work on you, and oppress you. You know, that's a trick of the devil, to oppress. But when the Christian knows his legal rights! Amen! When you can quote God's Word, "I'll never leave thee, nor forsake thee," that takes all the oppression away. And the clouds begin to clear back. But if you just know that God has promised, and God is faithful! He can keep His promise, or He would never promised it.

49 And then this broker come by and he noticed one of those slaves. Oh, my, he wasn't like the rest of them. You didn't have to whip him. He was right up, with his chest stuck out, and his chin up. And he was just willing to work or do anything, just real snappy, brilliant fellow. And the broker said, "I'd like to buy that one."

He said, "He . . ." The owner said, "He is not for sale."

He said, "Why, what is it?" He said, "Is he a boss over the rest of them?"

Said, "No. He is just a slave."

"Why," said, "maybe you feed him a little better than you do the rest of them?"

Said, "No, he eats out there in the galley with all the rest of them."

"Well," said, "what makes him so much up-and-at-it?"

50 Said, "I've always wondered myself, till I found out something." Said, "You know what I found out? That his father is the king of the tribe. And though he's an alien, yet he knows he's a son of the king." Amen.

51 Brother, though we be alienated in this world, where sin and chaos is, yet, stick out your chest and throw up your eyes, you're sons and daughters of a King. What kind of a person ought . . .

He did that to keep up the morale of the rest of them.

52 And that's what we got to do, who is born again of the Holy Spirit, keep up a good courage. What kind of a people we should—we should be, knowing that our Heavenly Father is the King.

53 Only one thing, the slave never knew he would ever go back home again. But, there's one blessed thing, we know we're going Home someday. Amen. Jesus said, "I will come again and receive you unto Myself. That where I am there you may be also. And don't let your hearts be troubled. Don't think about anything else, but keep your mind on these things." That would make a mockingbird sing at the middle of the night. When, he can know!

54 I've often wondered. I see Brother Wright sitting over here. I used to preach down at the Baptist church. I'd see that old mockingbird sit out there at nighttime and sing in that cedar bush. And I wondered what made him sing. And I got to reading up, on the birds. And I find out that what he does, I notice on a cloudy night, he would just sing now and then; he was watching for the stars. And every time he sees the stars shining, he knows the sun is shining somewhere, so he starts singing.

55 And I think that's the way it is with Christians. As long as we can feel and know that the Presence of God is with us, a little glory falling down once in a while, a good old-fashion revival, or an old hallelujah song that makes us sing with all of our hearts, for we know the Holy Spirit is still falling somewhere. God is still getting glory. What a wonderful thing!

56 Daniel, an alien, away from home, way down, but watch what he did. "He purposed in his heart, that he wouldn't defile himself with the king's doings down there." Oh, the king's fancy foods, and all of his dainties that he was to eat upon, and his wines, liquors, but he purposed in his heart, while he was an alien, he would keep himself for God. Amen.

57 There you are. Though the world forsake you, yet everybody laughs at you and calls you every fanatical name that can be called, purpose in your heart to do that which is right. Purpose in your heart that you'll have nothing to do with the world.

58 We're living in the shadows of the Coming of the Lord. What can you promise yourself, anyone? What can any nation promise? There's not a promise left. Nothing is left. There is chaos in everything. There is nothing this way, you can see. But look up That way, every promise in the Word is true. Some glorious day, Jesus shall come, and all these things will be taken away, and Christ will reign.

59 Isn't it a wonderful hope to know that these old frail, fragile bodies, that we're living in, and these little brittle threads of life that we're walking on, someday will give way? And every mortal wheel that's turning, will stop, and we'll take a trip over to Zion's hill, to live in the Presence of God forever. Like a new man and a new woman, young and in the splendor of youth, to be that way forever.

The old will be young There, forever,
Transformed in a moment of time;
Immortal, shall shine in His likeness,
The stars and the sun to outshine.

60 What a glorious assurance we have of this, because God's Eternal Word, Who has been true in all ages, has promised it to the believer.

What have we got to worry about? Not a thing. But, just be happy about it.

⁶¹ Now, Daniel said, “I’m going to purpose in my heart, no matter how much pressure they put on me, how much they laugh and say I’m a holy-roller, that won’t bother me a bit. That won’t faze me one bit. I’m going to stay true to God, no matter what comes to pass.” That’s the way. Then you’re going to get somewhere when you start with that attitude.

⁶² Remember, it’s the motives that you have towards anything, that determines what you’re going to get out of it. It’s your motives. If your motives is right, you’ll be all right. But always make your motives right. Serve the Lord for one purpose, because you love Him; not because you’re afraid of hell, not because you’re afraid of dying; but because you love Him, Who loved you when you were unlovable. That’s it.

Dear dying Lamb, Thy precious Blood
Shall never lose its power,
Till all the ransomed Church of God
Be saved, to sin no more. (That’s right.)

Ever since by faith I saw that stream
Thy flowing wounds supply,
Redeeming love has been my theme,
And shall be till I die.

⁶³ What a marvelous quotation of the poet! And that’s right. Take all of everything else, but give me love. If I had every gift in the Bible, and could exchange it for love, I’d never wink an eye; I’d take it right now. Let me feel the blessings of the Lord Jesus and His Divine love into my heart, that’s shed abroad by the Holy Ghost, and I’ll exchange any gift in the Bible for that. Yes, sir. I’d exchange a—a domain, if I was a king and sitting on a throne, and the world was my domain, I’d give every penny of it, and forfeit a million years on this life, in this world here, to have the love of Jesus Christ that’s shed abroad in our hearts by the Holy Ghost. There is nothing to compare with it. So, purpose in your heart now that you’ll serve the Lord, no matter what the world says.

⁶⁵ The biggest lie was ever told had truth in it. The first lie was ever told, had truth in it. The first lie that the devil told Eve had a lot of truth in it. Said, “She would be open-eyed. She would have . . . She would be wise. She would have more knowledge.” All that was true. Then he said, “Surely, you’ll not die.”

But God said, “You would die.” So that just settled it, keeps true to the Word.

⁶⁶ And Daniel was going to purpose in his heart, he would be true to God and God’s Word. And while he was down there, the Lord could use him. Why could He use Daniel? Because he had purposed in his heart.

And if you want to be used of God, purpose in your heart that you’ll love Him, and serve Him, and everything will be fine.

The king dreamed a dream.

⁶⁷ And, oh, how I would like to have time to go in. . . I preached on this, one time here at the tabernacle, for weeks after weeks after weeks, many years ago, some fifteen, maybe twenty years ago.

⁷⁰ But I’d rather be a—I’d rather be a humble servant of the Lord, than have all the organizations there is in the world, yes, or go to the biggest church, or belong to the—to the majority. I’d rather be on the minority, anyhow, and be right with God. Yes, anytime.

⁷² And many times, we may not have our hair to grow out like eagles’ feathers, and our—our fingernails may not grow out like eagles’ claws, neither may we eat grass like an ox, but sometimes God has to put affliction on us, to let us know that He is still the Ruler of our life. And we’re only here because He permits us to be here, and it’s His grace that we are here, and we must serve Him.

73 And here—here some time ago, I was talking to a man out in Idaho up here, and he said, “Well, Mr. Branham,” he said, “I raise hogs.” He said, “My grandfather had this herd. He educated us children. And the same herd, I’ve educated my children. And my children have come up, and educate theirs by the same herd.”

74 I said, “That’s very nice, sir. And that’s a legitimate job, is to—is to raise stock. But,” I said, “did you know, God put you here for some other purpose besides raise hogs, to educate your children? God put you here to be sons and daughters of God. And if you fail to get that, you fail to receive the very purpose God put you on earth to be.” That’s right.

75 No matter how honest, how decent, how moral, you might be, how good you might be, what a fine sociable fellow you might be; you’ve still miss the calling, unless you serve the Lord Jesus, and become a son and a daughter of God. No matter how good a neighbor you might be, how good a anything you may be, that’s all good, and we appreciate that. But, my brother, until you become a son of God, you fail to answer the purpose that God put you on earth to be. That’s right.

Now, King Nebuchadnezzar, he was a haughty man. He said, “Look what I have done!”

76 Then the Lord give him a dream, and it troubled him. And when he did, he saw a great image. And we are well acquainted with that image. And notice the accuracy of God’s Eternal Word. King Nebuchadnezzar seen a image with a golden head. And its breast in here was silver. And its thighs were brass. And its feet was iron and clay. Now notice how those kingdoms . . . The softest material is gold. The next come in, harder than that, is silver. The next is brass. And the hardest of all of them is iron. Iron is the hardest. And notice how the Gentile world would start. It would start a soft, then just keep getting harder, and harder, and harder, and harder, till it finally went out into the clay and iron, mixed together. And each one of those kingdoms . . .

77 Now think, twenty-five hundred years ago, a single person that purposed in their heart that they would serve the Lord, and would not defile themselves, foretold this day to the dot. And every other age coming down, perfectly. How that the Babylonian kingdom was taken away; the Medes and Persians taken that over; and Greece taken that over; and Rome took it over, and broke into both feet, which is eastern and western Rome.

78 And how that in the Roman, they’d have two different churches amongst the Gentile, one would be Catholic and one Protestant. The iron of the Roman Catholic church, and the clay of the Protestant, how they wouldn’t mix together, but would mingle them seeds, one marrying into the other one, trying to break the power of the other one. Just perfectly, exactly how God said would take place.

⁷⁹ And that has come to pass, just as perfect as it could come to pass, and every other promise of God will come to pass just as perfect as that was. Someday we're going Home to Glory, someday Jesus is coming.

⁸⁰ I believe, coming down to the text now, that we're living in the very day that God had promised that He would pour out His Spirit on the Gentile church. He poured out His Spirit upon the Hebrew church, back there at the beginning, at the Day of Pentecost. He said, "There would be a former rain and the latter rain," the two different people, the Jew and the Gentile. And in this last days, "He would pour out His Spirit upon the Gentile church."

⁸¹ Now, I want you to notice, as soon as the king saw this vision, and he made it, he forced every person in his kingdom, in his domain, to worship this image. He made an image. And it's believed by scholars. . . . In which, I do believe that a Spirit-filled person would see it, that—that. . . . He worshipped Daniel, is what he did. And he made an image to Daniel, and he called it "Belteshazzar." He called Daniel, "Belteshazzar," which was the name of his god. And he made an image, and forced every person to worship that image.

⁸² I want you to notice, that, the beginning of the Gentiles, when God dealt with them, they got haughty in their heart and forced every man to worship the image of a holy man. And the Gentile Age was issued in with that. It will go out in the same way, the same way, a—a boycott of the mark of the beast, that will force people to worship images and to do the things that we've been taught that was contrary to the Word of God. And, brother, it'll be so slick and sly, until, "It will deceive the very Elect, if possible." So you better purpose in your heart, tonight, and be filled with God's Holy Spirit, that you'll be able to discern the right and wrong thing, when the proclamation is issued. Hallelujah!

⁸³ When we see all the eastern, middle eastern powers, when we see the eastern and western world again uniting, see them two feet in Daniel's vision. See? It's just repeating again, and it's a revival of the old Roman Empire coming up, as certain as I'm standing here. It's true. It's time for Daniels to rise. It's time for people, who will purpose in their heart, that they'll live true to God and to the Holy Spirit, and to the principles of the Bible, regardless of what the rest of the world said.

⁸⁴ Look what a great big cadoo they had. The first thing, it got worse and worse, all the time. Now we see it coming to a head. And right down to the head of the thing, it come to a place where they begin to immorally, and they married wives, and they mixed, mingled marriages, and everything. And finally the king became to a place until he called all of his wives, marrying and intermarrying, and he called all of his lords, and his concubines, and all together, to have a big shindig one night. Called them all together, to have a big barn dance, as we would call it today, nothing else in the world. Right! A great big jubilee! And all the people. . . And perhaps many of the Jews was right there with them. And they called them all in. And after they got drinking pretty well, they felt like that they would go in and get the religious things, and make a little fun of it.

⁸⁵ And when a man becomes intoxicated with whiskey, or strong drink, he isn't mentally right. So, if he is mentally right enough to know that he shouldn't do it, then he goes and does it anyhow, God will hold him responsible for it regardless if he is drunk. Cause, He proved it that night, He did. That's right. You know better than to do it, in the first place. You know better than to commit adultery. If you're caught in the act, you're just guilty. And God will catch you, don't you worry about that. That's right. And if you lie, or steal, or anything else, God will catch you. Remember, your sins will find you out. It sure will. So, purpose in your heart, tonight, that you're going to serve the Lord.

And they had all the examples of what God was going to do. They had it foretold them, through the king.

⁸⁶ Really, Belshazzar is called his son, but it was his grandson. It was his daughter's. . . he had a. . . Nebuchadnezzar had a daughter, and she married a general, and this general's boy was Belshazzar. So, then, it was his grandson.

⁸⁷ And he knowed what God had done to his grandfather, for getting in that condition. And he had all those things, and what he did, and yet he ignored everything that God had said. He ignored it, and went ahead with his own way.

⁸⁸ And, brother, sister, if that isn't the picture of the country today, I don't know what is. When the Bible says it's wrong to do these things, and the church will continually go on and do it. We make whiskey drinking legal. We make beer drinking legal. They let women. . .

⁸⁹ Here the other day, me and my buddy back there was going squirrel hunting. And we got out. . . And I've used guns all my life, and we put up a great barricade of steel and everything else, and shot a couple of bullets in there to see if our sights was in, up there in the yard, and they called the police. And they come up there and said, "It was dangerous to live in the neighborhood."

⁹⁰ I said, "I ought to call the police then, and tell them, 'It's dangerous to have them naked women laying out there in that yard, of people driving up and down the street.'" They know better than that. Nature itself will tell you better than that. But it's got to a day, they ignore every law of God. They make up their own man-made fancies, and serve that way.

⁹¹ Brother, we've got nothing in the world but another Babylon, just exactly. We've got a modern way of Babylon, and a great drunken party, lay out. And church . . . Not only just the sinners, but church members do that, on Sunday afternoon, rallying away, drinking. Little old girls, out on the street, with a coat on, like this. So cold, nearly freezing to death, with no clothes beneath. There is only one thing, and only one place in the Bible, that was ever acted, that made a person take off their clothes, and they were devil possessed. That's right. It's the Truth. And there's no compliment on that, compromising. It's the Truth. It's the devil that gets into those people, that makes them strip their clothes off. It's the devil. You don't mean to be wrong, but, woman, it's the devil doing that.

⁹³ Oh, brother, do you realize that that's the devil that's doing that? Purpose in your heart, that you'll live, if it's old fashion, live old fashion, and serve the Lord God of the heavens and earth. Purpose in your heart.

Notice how they've got away. It used to be wrong for men to drink. Why, it's popular now, everywhere you go, in their rooms.

⁹⁴ I was in a Sunday school convention, not long ago, in the room, the hotel room where we was staying, the awfulest drunken bunch I ever got into, in my life. And they were riding up and down on the elevators, in a Sunday school convention. And little boys and girls going in the same room together, and staying all night, and their archbishop sitting there, permitting it.

⁹⁶ What's the matter? We're getting ripe for judgment. You can preach the Bible, and the Power of the Holy Ghost, and the resurrection of Christ, and the signs and wonders to follow the believer, speak, the gifts coming back into the church, the restoration of all things, and preachers will even laugh at you and say, "You've lost your mind."

⁹⁷ Brother, I've purposed in my heart, regardless of what America has got to say, if I have to be excommunicated, I preach the whole Bible or none of it at all, and stay true to the principles of the living God. Certainly.

Purpose in your heart to do that which is right. Think that which is holy.

⁹⁸ I had a little cross hanging down in front of my car, coming down Sellersburg the other day. There was a man got in the car, he said, "Billy, I want to ask you a question." He said, "Did you know that's Catholic?"

I said, "What?"

Said, "The cross."

⁹⁹ I said, "Oh, no. When did the Catholics ever have the option on the cross?" Right. I said, "That's an emblem of Christian faith." I said, "Catholicism is worshipping dead people, such as Mary and—and Saint Cecilia, and all those other little ten thousand little saints they got. That's Catholicism. But Protestantism is the cross and the Christ Who rose from the dead, and is alive tonight, for evermore, and 'the only Mediator between God and man.'" Amen.

¹⁰⁰ I said, "I'll tell you why I hang it there." I said, "It's because . . . I might move some of these days. They tell me that the mayor of Miami is out, making a proclamation, that, every woman that comes on the street has to be covered from her neck to her knees." I said, "I'll move to Miami regardless of how I hate it. Yes." I said, "The reason, ever which way you look, east or west, or right or left, it's always some kind of vulgarity. It's before you, always. And when I look at that cross, I can see something better. And I think of the ransom price that God Almighty, out of Heaven, Who saved my soul. When I think, that on that cross, the emblem of suffering and shame. It was on that old cross that Jesus bled and died, to save and sanctify me from the things of the world. And He is always before my face." That's right, now, in the day that we're living, and the things that . . .

¹⁰¹ Notice, in all that chaos, they went and got the holy vessels of the Lord, and came out, and drinking wine in them, and made mockery, and made fun of the holy things of God.

¹⁰³ Jesus said, "Whosoever shall speak a word against Me, shall be forgiven, but when the Holy Ghost is come, and does this same work, to speak a word against That, will never be forgiven in this world or the world to come.”

¹⁰⁶ Remember, after a while, the handwriting come on the wall, “MENE, MENE, TEKEL, UPHARSIN,” which means, “Thou art weighed in the balance, and found wanting.”

¹⁰⁷ Brother, when I see the ensign lifted yonder in Jerusalem, when I see the Jews returning back, when I see that middle Eastern problem. Little old India is laid down there, all these years, and now she’s a keynote; illiterate people, but a keynote. We failed to preach the Gospel to them. We’ve done everything else. We even built great big churches, and spent billions of dollars, to put in a church. And missionaries can’t go, because they haven’t got the finance to go on. And we’ve went over there, and what missionaries went over there, and try to tell them about the Lord, here come the others over, following them, in great big fine finery, and even making fun and shunning them. I stood and watched it with my own eyes. Brother, we’ve been weighed in the balance, and found wanting.

¹⁰⁸ The missionary had the penny march on the altar, and the beer company got his, the tithing money that should have went to God. That’s exactly the truth. That’s exactly the truth. We have absolutely donated to the wrong thing. We put everything in those so-called organizations, and little charities and things like that, when men ride around in great big green Cadillacs, with stud rings on, a fifty-cent cigar in his mouth, getting five hundred dollars a week, to distribute to his friends. That’s right. That’s the backbone of all of it. And our . . .

¹⁰⁹ The devil has come in, from over in Paris, where they was the lowest, filthiest, nastiest people there is in the world. And they come over here, and we fashioned our people after them. All the women got their modernistic idea. Do you remember? I was reading it in, the other day, in some reports from Hollywood. And you know where the first song that ever was put on radio, that begin to start the ball rolling, was uncensored? The first thing started, was that little old song, "Roll them your . . . down, your stockings, and show your knees, girls." Look at them now, they haven't got any stockings to roll down.

¹¹¹ And now we have got so low down and so corrupt, and we have succeeded and went past Paris, until now they're fashioning after us. Oh, my. And when I think, when I walked the streets of Paris there, and those old urinals, how they stunk on the street, I think the whole nation of America has become a modern urinal in the sight of Almighty God, when divorce and rape and crime. And, stop it, if you can? You can't stop it. God said it would be so, and she is ripe for judgment.

¹¹³ What a day! What a time that we're living in, a modern Babylon. Then God, Who was just to pour out His judgment there, has got to be the same just God today, to pour out His here. And as the Gentile Age was issued in, under riotousness and drinking, and women, and carousing, the Gentile dispensation is going out in the same manner. We are going out through chaos, from drinking, drunken.

116 Now, friends, don't let these words pass foolishly. They are true, and they are sound. And they are the Bible. And they are coming from my heart, if I know, that I try to keep it open before God. And, brother, sister, receive it in the Name of the Lord Jesus, in the way it's supposed to be given.

117 And I want you to notice this now. I want you to listen close. Did you notice? Right before the very climax of all of it, when they got the handwriting on the wall, they said, "What's all this?" They went and got their wise men. They got the Chaldeans. They got the soothsayers. And no one could interpret that language. No one could know what it was. There was only one man, left in their kingdom, that could interpret unknown tongues. God spoke in unknown tongues, and wrote with His finger, in unknown tongues. And there was a man there who had the gift of interpretation, and that was the man who purposed not to defile himself with the king's meat. Amen. And he had the true interpretation. There's a false bunch; that's true. But there was one man had the article, and he could read it. And he interpret what it was.

118 Notice, the Gentile age ceased with the supernatural gifts of God in operation. It begin with the supernatural gifts. It ends with the supernatural gifts. And the supernatural gifts has returned to the Holy Ghost-filled Church, and it's in operation today. And they're reading the handwriting on the wall, "We're in chaos." Amen. Purpose in your heart not to serve no one else but the Lord Jesus. Purpose tonight, that you'll live for Him. We're at the end time, friends. We're at the end day. Look what's happened.

119 I remember the first little vulgar song. And, now, all you could turn on, on the radio, if you don't get some good religious program, it's one of these old boogie-woogies or rock-and-rolls. That's right. Just think what's going on!

120 Look at the modern American home. You know where, pop, where's he at? He's down to the barroom, having a social drink with the neighbor. Where is mom at? Well, she's down at the stitch-and-sew party, playing cards. Where is Junior at? In his hot rod, out racing on the streets, dragging with everybody; with a girl wrapped in one arm, and a cigarette in the other. Where is sis at? She is down at the canteen, doing a rock-and-roll, out all night with a bunch of soldiers, with everything she can run with. That's a modern American home.

121 Brother, the handwriting is on the wall. Right! "Thou art weighed in the balance and found wanting." And great men has crossed this nation, Billy Graham, Jack Schuler, Oral Roberts, and them, preaching the unadulterated Gospel of the Lord Jesus. And people has laughed at It and made fun of It, and turned It down, flatly.

¹²² And there's only one thing left, that's Divine judgment, and it's coming. And Russia has got her setting there waiting for you. Brother, to realize that a hundred and fifty million people could die in one hour, and that could be before daylight breaks in the morning. This whole nation could become annihilated. And what do you think will take place when, say, at least, if ten thousand planes loaded with atomic bombs? If each one would drop an atomic bomb, or a hydrogen bomb, on this nation, the whole world would shake plumb from its orbit. What would that do? Fulfill every Word God said would come to pass. What would it do?

¹²³ In the time of the antediluvian world, when they built the sphinxes, and so forth, those big pyramids, that we couldn't reproduce it today if we had to, back in that same country where the fusses are beginning now, in Egypt. A very striking Bible prophecy, if we had time to get it; but we haven't. But notice. God prophesied, over in Ezekiel, about, in the 9th or 19th chapter. I forget just now which it was along there. That, "In the day just before the Coming of the Lord, there would be a highway come out of Egypt, and go up into Syria." And they've just completed that highway, after twenty-five hundred years of prophesy. And in that day, how that, Jerusalem, "There would be an ensign lifted up, the old six-point star of David would fly." And how that the . . . would "blossom as a rose." And the Jews would "return from everywhere, returning back to the homeland."

¹²⁴ Here the other day, Brother Arganbright showed me that picture, Three Minutes Before Midnight. That wasn't Christians. That was science said that. The old clock has went away, and the pendulum has beat back and forth, back and forth, through troubles and chaos, and Gospel sermons and messages, until finally she is three minutes before midnight.

127 “And when the fig tree puts forth her buds, time is at hand, even at the door. Verily, I say unto you, this generation shall not pass until all be fulfilled.”

128 When we see America, the great, last civilization, brother, as great a nation as it is, we’ve got to give way. Everything mortal has to give way to immortality.

129 I stood here, some time ago, up in the woods, and cried like a baby. I went over here to my daddy’s grave. I used to see him wash his face, his little short, stubby arms. He was a logman, just stout as he could be. And I’d see how . . . Mr. Coats told me, said, “I seen your daddy, single-handed . . . Billy,” said, “you ought to be a stout man.”

I said, “But I’m not.”

He said, “I seen your daddy, single-handed, load an ash log that weighed nine hundred and fifty pounds.”

And I thought, “Boy, that, my daddy will live to be a hundred and fifty years old.” He died at fifty-two.

130 What was it? We have no continuing city here. Everything mortal gives way; I don’t care how strong you are, how healthy you are. Your breath lays in the hand of Almighty God. He might take it in the next second. That’s right.

131 I stood by an old tree up here, where, when I was first saved. I didn’t know how to talk to the Lord, but I wanted to get right. I never did speak to Him. So, you know how I prayed my first prayer? I was going to write it out on a piece of paper.

132 Being a woodsman, I always lived in the woods, mostly. And I—I noticed that out there I’d see Him in the woods. I could hear Him. I could hear His footprints like, as He come through, the nighttime, the whirlwind. Oh! “He rides upon the whirlwind.” Hallelujah! His way is in a whirlwind. I could see Him as He clapped His hands with the leaves, like that. [Brother Branham clapped his hands—Ed.] Everything. And a Voice saying, “Adam, where art thou?” Oh, laying down under a blanket; my head sticking out, looking at the stars. I knowed He stayed in the woods.

133 And I wrote out my prayer, I said, “God, I’ve been an awful man. If you’ll just forgive me.” I took it and tacked it on the tree. I didn’t know how to ask Him. I thought, “If He come by, He could read it and know that I was sorry for what I had done.” I didn’t know how to pray. But the God of Heaven understood that, and He saved my lost soul. Yes. Yes, sir.

134 I stood by the old trees up there in the woods, other day, and I started weeping. Brother Wood and I was out in the woods, and I noticed it. And that great big tree had its great strong branches out like that. I thought, "What a wonderful tree!" I used to break pieces off of it, (couldn't afford a tent), and make a little shelter rest and get back under at night, when it was raining; when I would be fishing, staying out all night, and when I just was a kid. And I thought, "This tree will stand here for hundreds and hundreds of years." It's nothing but a snag now. What is it? No matter how strong and how powerful it was, everything mortal has to give way to immortality.

¹³⁵ And, brother, we've been a great nation. We've been a great people. We've been a great church. We've been a great everything. But, I tell you, everything mortal has to give way. And this, the time is at hand. I tell you everything is laying in it, and the world has become to one great big chaos of just of corruption and stink, before God.

¹³⁶ This nation, it's whiskey drinking, beer drinking. And our taxes is paid on this whiskey and stuff, which supports our nation. And it's blood money, if you think it's wrong to drink whiskey.

And you say, "Leave it alone, preacher. You oughtn't to say nothing about drinking. It's our American rights."

¹³⁷ I know it's your American rights, but it's not your Heavenly rights. And, brother, if you are willing before God, you'll. . . You will be able. . . You will, in your heart, forfeit every filthy right that you have, to serve the Lord, and will purpose in your heart that you'll not defile yourself with the things of the world.

You say, "Brother Branham, other Christians smoke. Why can't I smoke?"

¹³⁹ All these other things, and your dressing. Say, "Well, the rest of the women, they dress like this. The other girls, they dress like this. They do this. Why can't I do it?" I know, it's your American rights. "The law don't say I can't do it." I know that. It don't say hardly anything. You can do anything you want to, that's right, just about any.

¹⁴⁰ But, brother, it's not in a Christian's heart to do that. If you'll purpose in your heart that you'll live clean and pure before God, nature itself will teach you that those things are wrong.

¹⁴¹ But, here we are, we come into this place. What is it? It's because we're at the end road. Purpose in your heart, tonight, "Never no more, never no more, as long as the world stands," or as long as you live, that you'll never defile yourself anymore with the portion of the American way of life, yes, sir, American way of life, so-called.

¹⁴² Now, the old American way of life was fine; be neighborly and honest, so forth. That's good. But this modern way, of your nakedness, and drinking, and carousing, and separation, and marrying, and intermarrying, and—and all this nonsense; purpose in your heart to abstain from all that, as long as you live.

Let us pray.

¹⁴³ While we have our heads bowed, every heart before God, sincerely. I believe that we're at the end of the road. These signs always come at the junction time. Remember, just before the antediluvian destruction, God raised up a prophet. God sent Angels to the earth, great signs and wonders took place. And the rain come, and the world was destroyed. Just before the coming out of Egypt, God sent a prophet, He sent an Angel in a burning bush, signs and wonders were done. Oh, what a horrible thing! And Egypt was drown in the sea, behind, and the church went on to victory.

¹⁴⁴ Just before the coming of the Lord Jesus, there was a prophet raised up, John the Baptist. The Message went forth, Angels appeared, signs and wonders were done, and Jesus came. And the Saviour of the world was crucified.

¹⁴⁵ We're at the end road. We've come down through the age of the Catholicism, fifteen hundred years of dark ages. We've come through the hundreds of years of Martin Lutherism. We come from that, to Methodism from John Wesley. We come from that, to Calvin, Knox, Finley, Finney, all the rest of them, on down into Pentecostism. And we're at the end of the fifty years of Pentecost. She is just as backslid as the rest of it. She is gone out now. The women have become acting like the world. The men has become taking on the things of the world. The preacher in the pulpit is ashamed or afraid to tell, because he's afraid he'll get kicked out of the organization.

¹⁴⁶ God help us to have men that's free from every bondage, free from everything, that they could preach the Word without compromising, and call black "black," and white "white."

¹⁴⁷ My, friend, are you a Christian, tonight? Are you saved? Do you know you're saved? We're at the end of the road. And some of these nights, it's going to be too late. He'll come. And the Rapture might be at any time.

¹⁴⁸ While we have our heads bowed, is there someone would raise up your hand and say, "Brother Branham, remember me in prayer tonight. I want to purpose in my heart, from this night on, I'll never serve the world no more”? Would you raise your hand? “I’ll quit my smoking. I’ll quit my dancing. I’ll quit my meanness of the world.”

¹⁴⁹ God bless you, sir. God bless you, lady. Someone else? God bless you, sir. God bless you, buddy. Bless you, here on the end, brother. Bless you back there, little lady.

¹⁵⁰ Someone else raise your hand, say, “By God’s grace, tonight, I realize I’m in Babylon. I realize that the condition that we’re in. I hear it blasted everywhere, Brother Branham, and I know we’re at the end of the road. I now raise my hand to Christ Jesus, and ask Him to be merciful to me. And I purpose in my heart, from this night on, to stop all the filthy things that I have been doing, and serve the Lord.”

¹⁵¹ God bless you, lady. God bless you, sir. God bless you. Someone else, raise your hand, say, “I now refrain from all the things of the world. And I now serve the Lord, from tonight on.”

¹⁵² Now, as we sing softly, with your heads bowed. If anyone feels convicted about it, I want you to, if you wish to, walk up here and kneel down at the altar, that we might pray with you. By doing this. . .

¹⁵³ What did Jesus say? “He that heareth My Words and believeth on Him that sent Me, has everlasting Life, and shall not come into judgment, but has passed from death to Life.” How simple it is! Men, women, could you afford to miss Heaven? What is . . . ? What’s all . . . ?

¹⁵⁴ When ages are rolling by, thousands and hundreds of thousands of years from tonight, when . . . This old world is going to be blowed up. The Bible said so. Russia thinks so now. She has got the bomb hanging right there; your name wrote on it.

¹⁵⁵ “Don’t fear him that can destroy the body, but He that can destroy both body, cast a soul in hell.” See? Fear God. Love Him. Purpose in your heart tonight to serve Him.

¹⁵⁶ And, this, sometime when this world is blasted with these bombs, she’ll fly out yonder in the sun, and the fervent heat will scorch the earth. And the world will be destroyed with fire, the burning of atoms; millions, billions, times, Fahrenheits.

¹⁵⁷ Will you do a simple thing? While God is speaking to your heart, raise your hand to Him, say, “I’ll serve God from tonight on. I’ll serve God.” God bless you, sir. God bless you. That’s. . . And God bless you. That’s fine.

Now, let us bow our heads now.

¹⁵⁸ Kind Heavenly Father! Rude, hard preaching of the Word; but, O Father God, I’m so tired of listening to little, Hollywood, babyfied, kid-glove sermons that don’t go down into the people’s heart, but kind of coats it over, “Come and join the church.” God, we want old-fashion repentance. We want men and women to rise and come to the Lord Jesus. God, we want to see this thing settled, for this will be the last time that we'll ever be able to be mortal. This will be the last time, and maybe the last chance, that men and women here tonight will ever have, of ever coming to You. This may be the sealing time. There may not be a tomorrow for many.

¹⁵⁹ Then, at that Day, I'll have to stand. When this great night here, it'll be on the recorder of Heaven, and I'll have to give an account for what I said. And the people have to give an account for how they responded.

¹⁶⁰ Lord, tonight, dozen hands, or more, has went up, seeking salvation. God, Thou art Christ. And we pray that You will receive them tonight. And bless them, and save them from sin, just now, and in their heart, that they purposed, as they go from this building, out into a modern Babylon, where some day she has got to be shook.

¹⁶¹ The Medes-o-Persians was waiting at the gate. He said, "Thou art weighed in the balance, and found wanting."

¹⁶² And when we hear, tonight, that a powerful nation that's got more bombs, and more planes, and thousands of times more men, and ready; a ungodly nation who knows not God, that's ready to come from the—the east, to the west, and are capable and able to do it. And here we sit, still wading in sin, with a drunken party, with whiskey, beer joints open, drinking, carousing.

¹⁶³ And the Church being made fun of, that's trying, that's washed her garments in the Blood of the Lamb. They're making fun of It. But the gifts of God has returned back, the great signs and wonders that You said would follow the believer. "These signs shall follow them that believe," You said. "In My Name they shall cast out devils, and speak with new tongues; take up serpents, or drink deadly things, it'll not harm them; they lay their hands on the sick, they shall recover." And them signs has come back, to show the people that the handwriting is on the wall, the end time is here.

God let . . . wake up every unbeliever, tonight, to the realization of his soul's salvation. We ask in Christ's Name.

And with our heads bowed.

¹⁶⁴ If any of you desire, that's accepted Christ as personal Saviour, tonight, if you would, I'd like for you to come and kneel here at the altar, and kneel down here and pray just a little. Friend, did you know what happens?

¹⁶⁵ God bless you, young man. Would someone else follow him? A man laying here on a cot, raises his hand. A man, perhaps crippled or something, or sick, very sick, laying on a cot, raises his hand. Maybe he can't get up to the altar. God can heal . . . take care of him right where he's at. Not only that, but heal him, too, and make him well. We're going to have a healing service.

¹⁶⁶ Would you rise up from your seat and come up here, just a minute? You who want to serve the Lord, and is wanting to make a dedication. God bless you, my colored brother, as he walks to the altar now to make his dedication. Another man, walking from the back. Come right on up. That's right.

There is a Fountain filled with Blood,
 Drawn from Emmanuel's veins,
 When sinners plunge beneath the flood,
 Lose all their guilty stain.

While we sing softly now, will you come?

There is a . . . (It's open.) . . . with Blood,
 . . . from Emmanuel's vein,
 And sinners . . .

Won't you come and kneel here just a moment, to talk it over? Come on up now. Kneel down here.

Lose all their guilty . . .

¹⁶⁷ Every Christian that knows the value of prayer, pray. Everybody that knows how to pray, be in prayer now. Remember, one man sitting by you, this may be his last chance. That may be the young lady's last chance. That may be that young man's last chance. Tonight, God may be knocking His last time. "My Spirit will not always strive with man." Maybe he'll never have the opportunity to come again.

¹⁶⁸ Here is three men, knelt over the altar. All of them adults. All of them realize what they're doing, knowing that they're in the Presence of Jehovah God right now. Jesus said, "He that comes to Me, I will in no wise cast out." Know that they've done wrong, and know that they've transgressed God's laws; and they come here kneeling on their knees, to say, "God, be merciful to me, a sinner."

¹⁶⁹ What did Jesus say? The publican, no more than smote hisself on the chest, and say, "God, be merciful to me, a sinner." He went to his home, justified. Will you come and kneel? Go back to your home, tonight, justified. Say, "Let atomic bombs blow, let death strike, anything it wants to, nothing shall faze me anymore."

¹⁷⁰ I'm looking back into a man's face, sitting back there, now. God bless his heart! He come here, not long ago, a dying man, cancer in his throat. I remember . . . He don't know it, but I asked the physician who knowed the case. He said, "He ain't got but just a few days." And he come here, and I prayed for him here at the altar. The precious Lord

Jesus healed him. Know him real well; used to go with his daughter. And here they are, sitting right here, he—he and his wife, tonight. I met him the other day, down, was mowing his yard. I see him out there, I just had to weep a little tear when I see him. I think, “If—if it hadn’t been for mercies of God, there he would have been laying up there in the graveyard tonight.” And how God did spare him!

¹⁷¹ I looked at poor Brother Burns, a while ago. And after the Holy Spirit come into the room, where he was at, he raised up and smiled. Said, “I’m coming back over to church, Brother Branham.” Watch him; he’ll be here. Don’t you worry. There’s not a doubt in my mind, at all. He’ll be here.

You come, make your way up now, here around the altar, the old-fashion altar of prayer?

God bless you, little lady, as you come, kneeling. Right over here, if you will. Who else will come at this time now, while we sing once more?

The dying thief rejoiced to see
That Fountain in his day;
There may I, though vile as he,
Wash all my sins away.

Will you sing it with me now? Let the Christians pray. Come on now, raise right up and come here. Want to come down and pray with you.

The dying thief rejoiced to see . . .

Won’t you come? God’s Word said, “Whosoever will, let him come.” Straighten up that ruined and lost life.

. . . may I, though vile as he,
Lose all their guilty stain.
Lose all . . .

Won’t you come? This is your opportunity, I’m begging you now.

And sinners plunged beneath that flood,
Lose . . .

¹⁷² God bless you, lady. Won’t somebody else come along, too? This is the hour and the time. God bless you, sister. Get right over here with these ladies, if you will. Be watching there, just a moment.

¹⁷³ You come now? That’s the way I like to see them come, weeping, sorry, coming to purpose in their heart. What did that? The Holy Spirit. I feel really constrained. And you know me well enough, to know that I . . . If I’m a fanatic, I don’t know it. And realizing that tens of thousands of people holding onto every word you say, you got to be careful what you’re saying, God will make you answer for it. I feel the constrain in my heart.

There's many people here tonight that really wants to come right here, but the oppression of the devil is trying to hold you back.

¹⁷⁴ Won't you cut loose, like this lady? Only thing she did, just surrender one little will, that was her will, and God took His will and brought her up here. Right now she has Eternal Life, is because she has come to confess Him.

Won't you come? Oh, I just feel . . .

Let's pray once more. Will you?

¹⁷⁵ Heavenly Father, knowing the great heavy pressure on my soul tonight, knowing that there's many here that should come. Many has even confessed it, by raising their hands. I, holding just a little long, Lord, knowing that maybe just this one more moment, it meant something to this lady here. It meant the death . . . the difference between death and Life. She come. And You said, "He that comes will not be cast away, but You will receive them." Now, to know that we're at the end. And, God, I thank You for the little lady coming now. And I pray that others will come. Grant it, Lord.

¹⁷⁶ Won't you come, sinner? Come on now, while we're just waiting in prayer. Prayer changes things. Another young girl just at the crossroads of life, where Satan could hold her there. And some of you people are aged and even gray-headed; you need to be here. Oh, brother, sister, your youthful days are gone, it's all over. These children can come; why not you? Won't you come? I beg you, in Christ's Name.

¹⁷⁷ Lord Jesus, once more I pray, I pray that not one stone, Lord, but what will be overturned. That everyone here might see. And may they come tonight, and take on the form and the Light of the Lord Jesus, and may they be a gallant soldiers of the cross, purposing in their heart to forsake the things of the world, and to come to Christ, tonight. Grant it, Lord, while we're waiting patiently on the Holy Spirit to water that Word, and to let them know that we are speaking: the Son of God is coming soon! They see the newspapers and everything else, the radios blasting it, and knowing that the big councils and conferences are all failing. And Russia is marching right on, like King Nebuchadnezzar of old.

¹⁷⁸ O God, the Gentile day is ended. The handwriting is on the wall. The spiritual gifts is in the church, to those who purposed in their heart. "MENE, MENE, TEKEL, UPHARSIN. We have weighed in the balance and found wanting."

¹⁷⁹ And, God, that the Gospel has been preached, right here in this tabernacle, hundreds of people who sit here, many are sitting here tonight, who has had the Gospel preached to them, the altar call made, then wrote across them, is, "MENE, MENE, TEKEL, UPHARSIN."

180 God, the altar call is given. Men is without excuse. You foretold. You've prophesied. You showed signs and wonders. You've healed cancers. You've opened the eyes of the blind. You made the cripple to walk. You made the deaf to hear, the dumb to speak. You've done all kinds of signs, right here at this tabernacle. And people are sitting here as witnesses, right now. O God, what will it be when the sun goes down? O God, what will it be when men are asked to give an answer? What will it be? Grant, tonight, Father, in Christ's Name, that many will come.

181 Will you come now, while one more call, will you make your way to the altar? No matter how long you've joined church, are you born again? Do you know Christ as your Saviour? Come, kneel down. I just want to wait a moment. Let . . . Pray now.

182 You hear that song that's playing? "When you're asked to give an answer . . ." What if Jesus should come before morning now? What if on your road home tonight, a drunken driver would crash into you? And the glass would fly across the arteries of your body, and you would be bleeding to death. And you'd have to stand before the judgment. You'll be asked to give a reason. What then?

What then? What then?
When the great Book is opened, what then?
When the one that's rejecting this Message tonight,
You'll be asked to give a reason—What then?

What then? What then?
When the great Book is opened, what then?
When the one that's rejecting this Message tonight,
Will be asked to give a reason—What then?

183 Won't you come? Don't reject Him. He is calling at your heart. It's the Saviour. Make up your mind, while we pray for these at the altar. And everyone with your heads bowed, and deeply in prayer. There is six or seven souls laying at the altar, tonight. Dear brother, you there on the cot, God seen your hand, too.

184 What have you done? Jesus said, "No man can come to Me, except My Father calls him first." God spoke to your heart; that was God's grace to you. Then you come. And Jesus said, "He that will come, I will in no wise cast out."

185 Then what are you doing? Just ask Him to forgive you, that's all He asks you to do. Be sorry for what you done. He'll take you. Say, "God, I'm purposing in my heart right now." Young lady, you the same. Both of you, all three of you at the altar; three men and three women. Just pray.

¹⁸⁶ Dear Heavenly Father, as I look down here and see men and women bow at the altar, under the influence of the Gospel. Oh, so happy, Lord, that we have something that puts us under an influence. It isn't strong drink. It's the wine of Pentecost. It influences us to do right. It takes all the wrong away and makes it right. We're so happy for this, Lord. These men have tasted of God. These women have tasted of God. Tonight, maybe for the first time in their life, Something has spoke to their heart and said, "Child of Mine, I was the One who kept you from having that accident. I was the One who spared you here when you were dying. Now won't you come and return, and give your life to Me? And let Me guide you, and take you Home. And I love you, and I want to be good to you."

¹⁸⁷ And they've come, kneeling at the altar, accepting this promise, God, that Thou hast made, that You would not turn them away. And I pray, Heavenly Father, tonight, that You'll bless each of them. May they rise from here, knowing this assurance: the God Who made the promise, keeps the promise. And may they have peace in their soul, from this night, henceforth. Not only these, but those back there who raised their hands. God, I pray that You'll be with them. I pray that, right now, in their seat, that they realize that they have made a mistake by not rising up. And may they say that one Eternal "yes" to God, "Lord, I'll purpose in my heart, right now, and I'll serve You from this night on. I promise You this, Lord, as I put up my hand. I'll do it by Your grace, God. I now believe in Jesus Christ. I now accept Him as my Saviour, my Guide. I'll not follow the leading of my own feeling. I'll follow the leading of His Spirit, from this night, henceforth, till I meet Him in person, personally, at the end of the road." Grant it, Father.

¹⁸⁸ Now I wonder, while we have our heads bowed, if any out in the audience has made that dedication to God, that didn't come to the altar, that will raise your hands, and say, "I made that dedication in my heart. 'God, from this night, henceforth, I'm going to serve You regardless of the price. I'm not going to follow my—my own thoughts, I'm going to follow the conviction of the Holy Spirit.'" Would you raise your hand, say, "I did that, Brother Branham, in my heart tonight."

¹⁸⁹ God bless you, mister. God bless you back there, lady. God bless you. God bless you, lady. God bless you, sir. That's good. That's good. God bless you over here, my brother. God bless you, brother, back there. I see you. That's right. Many of them.

Say, "Brother Branham, do they have to come to the altar?" No, no. No, no. It's in your heart. Your heart is God's altar.

¹⁹⁰ But it's good to come up and kneel down and pray, like these has. Yeah. They've come up to publicly confess it. I like to see them do this.

But, this is just an old-fashion way we have of doing it, coming to the altar, make our confession.

But, “As many as believed on the Lord Jesus Christ was saved.” That’s what the Bible said. Accept Him as personal Saviour.

¹⁹¹ Now, to you that’s around the altar, you men, and you women here at the altar, that believes that God sent you up to the altar, and He called you tonight, and you feel that God has forgiven you, your past life, and from tonight on, you purposed in your heart to serve the Lord Jesus, and turn from your ways of sin. And you’re going to serve Him from tonight on, as long as life is in your body, by His grace. Would you raise your hand, any of you at the altar? God bless you, brother. God bless you, brother. God bless you, brother. What about it, lady? God bless you, sister. What about that? God bless you, sister. What about down at the other end, the other two ladies there? Ask God to forgive you, sister. All but two, now, is saved, at the altar.

¹⁹² Now what? What must you do? Nothing. Believe, accept! It’s already been done. Jesus done it when He died at the cross. Now, real reverently, let’s sing softly.

There is rest for the weary,
There is rest for the weary,
There is rest for the weary
Since He set you free.

On the other side of Jordan,
In the sweet . . . of Eden
. . . the Tree of Life is blooming,
There is rest for you.

Now, Jesus breaks (That’s what He does.) every fetter,
Jesus breaks every . . . (All the smoking, drinking, lying, stealing!)
Jesus breaks every fetter,
Oh, and He sets you free!

I will ever, ever praise Him,
I will ever, ever praise Him,
I will ever, ever praise Him,
Since He set me free.

¹⁹³ Anyone else now, with your heads bowed? What about you on the cot, brother, you accept the Lord as your personal Saviour? God bless you, my brother. Your sins are all under the Blood now. I see you’re laying on a cot, perhaps crippled. Don’t worry, Christ will heal you. There your life will be spared.

You back there, raise your hands now and say, "I have accepted Christ tonight."

¹⁹⁴ And these two ladies at the altar, do you realize now, ladies, that Jesus Christ saves you from sin? What do you have to do? Nothing. He has done it for you. The only thing you have to do is accept what He done for you.

¹⁹⁵ Accept it, and then you're a candidate to receive the baptism of the Holy Ghost. God promised He'd fill with the Holy Ghost, those who come. Peter said, "Repent, every one of you, be baptized in the Name of Jesus Christ for the remission of sin, you shall receive the gift of the Holy Ghost." We're in the days of the outpouring of the Spirit, great signs and wonders in the Church.

Everybody in prayer now. I want to go talk to these ladies just a moment...?... Sister Bruce...?... [Blank spot on tape—Ed.] ...?...

¹⁹⁶ How many back there accepted the Lord tonight? Stand up on your feet. Stand up, where you're at, just stand up on your feet. Back there that said, "I accepted the Lord," raise up on your feet so you make a public confession. Say, "I purposed in my heart to defile myself no more with the things of the world. I'm serving the Lord from tonight."

¹⁹⁷ God bless you, sir. Just remain standing. Someone else? God bless you, lady. Someone else? You, who raised your hand, stand up to your feet, now. Show the people what you've done. It's nothing to be ashamed of. God bless you. God bless you. Someone else? Stand to your feet. What the Lord Jesus done for you. God bless you, lady. Someone else, stand to your feet. Some that raised your hand, now, stand to your feet. Say, "I purpose in my heart from tonight on, I'll serve the Lord Jesus."

¹⁹⁸ Oh, isn't this wonderful? The little ladies here, the two little ladies on the end, weeping so. Oh, what... They come down to the altar. They said... They were saved when they accepted the Lord, of course.

¹⁹⁹ Here's our brother, here, on the end of the row, here. If I'm not mistaken, that's your husband, Betty. Now, life will be changed for you, Betty. And God bless you, my brother.

²⁰⁰ And to our colored brother there, welcome into the fellowship of the Lord Jesus, our brother.

²⁰¹ And to our brother standing here, the little lady here, the others along the row, we all... and you back there standing up, welcome into this wonderful fellowship. God bless you.

²⁰² Now, somebody who's standing right near to these people, you on the front seat, and you standing back there where these are standing,

Christians won't . . . just shake their hand like that, and say, "God bless you." Just shake hands with some of them there, say, "God bless you," just to show the fellowship.

. . . where my Saviour died,
Down there for cleansing . . .

²⁰³ [Blank spot on tape—Ed.] . . . ? . . . Message has been preached for many years around the world by the apostles of our Lord Jesus Christ. Confirmed, taught by the Lord, confirmed by the apostles. It's still just as live tonight, and the power of God is just as real as it was the day that it was pronounced for our Lord Jesus.

²⁰⁵ Thirty thousand received the Lord Jesus as personal Saviour. Heathens broke their idols on the ground, and come to the Lord, while ten thousand Hindus, that was the Medes-o-Persians that alter not, but, forsaken their prophet, Mohammed, and serve the Lord Jesus Christ, at one time.

²⁰⁷ I'm forty-seven years old, according to my mother's statement, and I have prayed tens of thousands of times for people. I have never, in one time, in all my life, ever got sincere and asked God for anything, but what He answered me, or told me why. That's right. I say that with all my heart, not one time did I ever ask. This afternoon asking for Brother Burns, how happy I was, when God said, "Yes."

²⁰⁸ How happy I was when we prayed for the brother back here, I talked about, Brother Coats, back there, that had the cancer, back there, Brother Coats, sitting on the end there. And how happy I was when God said, "Yes," to him.

210 When King George of England, when he had multiple sclerosis, and I . . . He sent for me come over there and pray for him. How happy I was when Jesus said, “Yes,” to King George of England.

211 And how happy I was of Gustaf; went over there to pray for him, of his rheumatism.

212 How many times around the world, from the very lowest to the very highest. Jesus don’t care what your state is, it’s your heart before Him. He heals the sick and the afflicted. Now, we pray for the sick and we believe that God heals.

213 Now, is there any here that would like to be prayed for, by just raising your hand? We’re going to pray for the sick before we have communion service, then we’ll have communion. All right.

214 If our sister will give us a song, here, of Only Believe. If you will, we’ll have the people to line up on the right-hand side. The elder, here, will anoint them, while I pray for them and we, together, will pray for the sick.

215 Is there any other minister in here that believes in Divine healing, that would come and stand with me, while we pray for the sick? I’d be glad to have you, my brother, to come help me as we . . . And line up on my right-hand side over here, and bring them down along this side, as we pray for them.

216 I think in the . . . much of this Divine healing has been taught across the nation, and the thousands times thousands of people that’s been healed; how the radios, how the newspapers, even the critics has to admit it’s right, in the things that’s been done.

217 How we can thank God, tonight, for His great healing power. I don’t think it needs to be explained. I think it’s well known that the prayer of faith shall save the sick. That is true. (You got the oil . . . ? . . . Yes . . . ? . . .)

. . . all things are possible, only believe.

O Lord . . .

Now, let’s raise our hands, “Lord, I believe.”

. . . O Lord, I believe,
All things are possible, Lord, I believe;
O Lord, I believe, Lord, I believe,
All things are possible, Lord, I believe.

218 What did He say that day when He come down off the mount? There was many there. The disciples, they had a boy there that they couldn’t do nothing with. And they said, “Lord, we brought him to the disciples and they couldn’t help him, and we brought him to You.”

And He said, "I can, if you believe."

219 Now, tonight, to save time, the communion service coming up . . . Now, we usually, sometimes, have discerning of spirit, when the Lord speaks, and tells the person what's the matter, and what he should do, and should not do.

220 If I'm not mistaken, there's a man sitting here on the front seat, and I've seen him somewhere. If I'm not . . . You drove up to my house, one time, in a station wagon, not long ago, from up in Ohio, wasn't it? You remember how the Holy Spirit spoke out there? Just exactly, never seen you in my life, but how He, how . . . what He done. Just raise up your hand, young fellow. See.

221 Up there from way away, and it comes from everywhere. How He works in man. How many has ever seen it? Let's see your hands over the building. Course, nearly all. Sure.

Now, we know that He's here. He's here, and He do the exceeding abundant.

222 Now, if we'll anoint and pray for you, and all these ministers, standing here, as a background for the prayer for the sick, you'll exercise your faith to believe and to ask God and to go on believing that He'll make you well.

223 For it's written in the Bible: "He was wounded for our transgressions, with His stripes we were healed." Believe we were healed, we, it's a past tense, we were already healed. How thankful I am that we were.

224 I was looking back; seen Brother Roy Roberson setting there. Remember, he was one . . . I believe he was down at . . . Wasn't you down at Houston that night the Angel of the Lord come, had His picture taken, Brother Roy? I thought you were. And I think Brother Wood, there, somewhere in here, was down there, also, at—at the night the Angel of the Lord appeared in the—in the building.

225 How many is here, left out of the old group that remembers when He appeared down here on the river, when I was baptizing my first group, twenty-five years ago? Look. Many hands, yet, when He appeared down here. May the Lord bless. All right.

226 Now, these are ministers, aren't they, that are praying? Are, really? I'm so glad to see you. God bless you. I'll just shake hands with each of these brothers. I might not know you by name, but God bless you.

I'm so glad to see you, Teddy boy, to see you join in this to help us here, praying for the sick. God bless you.

227 Now, I'm going to ask you, my brethren, if you'll just form a little line right down along the side here, part of you up here and part down there, when we go to praying for the sick, if you will. Let—let's see, about—about—about four of you get right down here. I want each one of you to put your hands on the sick and afflicted. Then the rest of us will come right along this side here. That's right.

228 My, where there's unity, there's power. Isn't it? In the fortifying, now, of prayer. All right. How many out there, now, will promise that you'll be in prayer? Let's see your hands, way up. Good. All right.

229 Here's men of God, who really believe this, believe this Message. Just look at the preachers standing here, tonight, to offer prayer over the sick and afflicted.

230 And as they come along, as we're praying, each one is going to lay hands on you. Brother Neville's going to anoint you with oil. I'll be standing at the end of the line, also, to lay hands on the sick as they pass by. I trust that God will make each one of you perfectly sound and well.

231 Brother Collins, are you free, there, for a minute? Come here, just a minute. I think Brother Beeler's in the recording room there, yet, isn't he? Was you free? I want you to—to be humming this song for me over here, Only Believe, right after prayer, if you will, won't you? Hum? Will you be praying for the . . . ? All right. All right. With your heads bowed now, everybody together now.

232 Now, Heavenly Father, this crucial moment has come again. We're doing this because it's to fulfill the Word of God, that says, "The prayer of faith shall save the sick. These signs shall follow them that believe." And, tonight, many sick people are standing to receive the benefit of the prayers of these righteous men.

233 And there's oil down there, Lord, from the cruse, to anoint the sick. And there's ministers to lay holy hands upon the people, as a testimony, and to witness that they believe in Your death, burial, and resurrection, Your ascension, Your Second Coming, believe that Your healing power is great. No doubt, but many of them has been touched themselves by Your great anointed healing power.

And Father, as they lay their hands on the sick, may they recover. And bless us now, as we wait together for Your blessings, in Jesus' Name. Amen.

With your heads bowed, now, be in prayer while Brother Collins continues to lead on.

Now, the elders and them come here, help keep . . . ? . . . [Blank spot on tape—Ed.]

What is it?

Oh, precious is the flow
That makes me white as snow;
No other fount I know,
Nothing but the Blood of Jesus.
What can wash away my sin?
Nothing but the Blood of Jesus.
Oh, what can make me whole again?
Nothing but the Blood of Jesus.

All together.

Oh, precious is the flow
That makes me white as snow;
No other fount I know,
Nothing but the Blood of Jesus.

²³⁴ Now, your attention, just a moment. I want to ask you something. This man, the reason that I did what I did to the crippled man, he was helpless. Knowing in the Spirit, that the man . . . that this is his night to accept the Lord Jesus. Knowing that he was a past hope, and to know that he . . . all this life that he has lived without Christ. But, if the man is present to hear my voice, I wouldn't know him if I seen him now. But knowing this, that, the last few weeks, this man has been seeking for God. And his daughter come and was saved. And the man . . . That's the reason I did what I did.

The blind woman, the reason I did that, because it was casting out a evil spirit.

²³⁵ Now, the casting out of evil spirit, my church knows this, I go very careful on those things when I'm not under the anointing for a vision. See? Because, first, if anybody has been in my meeting, you'll watch. Before I call over a demon like that, I have to know what I'm talking about. How many has noticed it? It comb real close. But I asked the Lord, for the glory of God, that He would do this.

²³⁶ Like, the other night, to the little lady up there, that was deaf and dumb, with her severed nerve, could never hear or speak again. And I asked Him. And I seen Africa come before me. I said, "Lord, if it's You calling me back to Africa, heal this mute that had been in that wreck." And she could speak and hear like anyone else.

²³⁷ Now, tonight, when this blind woman was standing here, just coming into the Spirit, I noticed a shadow of darkness. Now, if the woman is still present, if she is, or somebody knows her. Now, right now, she can see better than she did a few minutes ago. In the morning, she'll still see better. Is—is the lady back there? Is that . . . ? All right, you see better. Don't you, lady? [The sister says, "Amen."—Ed.] That's right. Now, in the morning, you'll still see better. Day after tomorrow, you'll still see better. But, by the next day, it'll start going out again. It'll start acting, like. Remember, don't fail. It's them growths swelling. They're dead. What it is, a—a—a growth over your eye like that, is a . . . It's a devil, and it's growing a body. And when that spirit life goes out of any kind of a flesh, it shrinks.

²³⁸ Kill an animal, lay it on the scales, and weigh it tonight, and don't bother it, lay it on there in the morning, it'll be pounds lighter. Now let it lay there a little while, like a little dog laying in the street, and let it lay there a little while. Before it deteriorates or rots, it'll swell up and get big.

²³⁹ Now, when it goes to swelling, your sight goes to getting bad again, after about seventy-two hours, just praise God with all your heart. That's all. It's gone then. See? Just believe.

²⁴⁰ Now, blessed be the Name of the Lord! Are you happy for the Lord Jesus? And, what it is, I have seen Him do the signs and wonders! And, friends, we don't have to guess anymore. Jesus Christ is here. He heals the sick. He makes the lame to walk. I've seen Him raise the dead from their cots. I know He's the Lord Jesus. And I believe He's coming soon. I'm so glad, tonight, that you accept Him as your personal Saviour. And how many Christians is in here now? Raise up your hands, that's waiting for the Coming of the Lord. Bless the Lord!

²⁴¹ Our Heavenly Father, we thank Thee, tonight, for all these things. We thank Thee for the meeting, for the rugged Word of God, Who really divides. And judgment begins at the house of God. We thank Thee for all these things. We thank You for saving the lost, and for saving the different nations of people.

²⁴² We seen You bring tonight, to the altar, an Ethiopian boy, a colored brother, and saved him here from sin. Laid hands on him, that the asthma wouldn't bother him.

²⁴³ Here come one of his sisters along, blind, staggering in darkness. All at once, light flashed across her eyes. The demon had left. Oh, may he never return. God, give her faith, and may she stay healed.

We thank You for every soul that was at the altar.

²⁴⁴ We thank You for this man who laid on the cot, with the crutches around him, and then get up and walk away without the support of them; a saved man, a healed man. And his child around him, rejoicing in the glory of God. What a different home that'll be.

²⁴⁵ Oh, we thank Thee, Lord, for each and every one. We thank You for Betty's husband, and for those who came. Now, God, get glory out of all of it. It's all Yours.

²⁴⁶ And grant, Lord, that an old-fashion revival will break out here around this tabernacle, Lord, that'll send people from around the world, and a great campaign be carried on here in Jeffersonville, to the glory of God. Grant it, Father.

²⁴⁷ Now we're just ready to break the bread and to take the communion. And we pray, Lord God, that You'll be with us and bless us, and manifest Your love to us, as we do this. For we ask it in Christ's Name.

²⁴⁸ Now, to you who must go, we're going to dismiss you. Brother Neville, I'll ask you to get the Scriptures ready for the reading of the Word, for the communion, and you who can stay, stay with us for the communion. You who can't, you're dismissed with God's blessings on you, and come back and be with us again at another time. It's now eight minutes after ten o'clock. And now if you have to go, God bless you for coming, and we hope to see you again this side of Glory; if not, on the other side. And you that can stay, you're welcome to stay for the next thirty minutes, where we take the communion, and have—and have footwashing.

²⁴⁹ Now, to the strangers in our gates, shake . . . Everybody shake one another's hands and bless the Lord, while we sing Take The Name Of Jesus With You. All right.

Take the Name of Jesus with you,
Child (. . . ? . . . God bless you, Brother . . . ? . . .)
